Sandra “Sandy” K. Eisenman, 83, of Britt, passed away Wednesday, April 22, 2026, at Westview Care Center.

Sandra Kay Eisenman, the daughter of Fred and Inga (Kittleson) Aase, was born on June 5, 1942, in Minneapolis, MN. She grew up in Northwood, Iowa, where she graduated from high school in 1960. She worked at an insurance company in Minneapolis and then as a dental assistant for Dr. Swale in Mason City. Together, they made their home on the family farm east of Britt, where they raised their family. Sandy enjoyed having her daycare at the farm and in town and loved watching her daycare kids grow. Sandy and Chet looked forward to going to Arizona in March for a couple of weeks to see their daughter, Kristie, and traveling to Branson for the Christmas shows with her brother, Merle, and his wife, Sally. Sandy enjoyed attending West Hancock school activities and her Thursday morning coffee group.

She was a member of First Lutheran Church, FLCW and the Britt Lioness.

Sandy is survived by her children, Kristie (Brad) McKinney of Mesa, AZ, Jolene (Marcus) Bruns of Britt and Kevin (Michelle) Eisenman of Britt; grandchildren, Ryan (Chelsea), Andrea (Nick), Chase, Bennett, Madison (Mathew), Carlee (Blake), Rhett and Carson; great-grandchildren, Malorie, Taylynn, Sage, Maxsen, Maverick and Navy; a sister-in-law, Sally Aase of Northwood; and many nieces, nephews and friends.
