God saw you getting tired and a cure was not to be.

So, He put his arms around you and whispered,

"Come to me"

A golden heart stopped beating hard-working hands at rest.

God broke our hearts to prove to us,

He only takes the best.

Love Whitnee Rembert

Barbara J. Rembert, a beloved matriarch, artist, and fashionista, passed away peacefully on March 23, 2026, at the age of 82. Born on October 24, 1943, in Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, she was the cherished daughter of Ida and Julius Wardlaw. Barbara was a proud graduate of Kensington High School, where she excelled as an artist and was honored in an art contest, earning a place of recognition in her school's hall of fame.

In 1963, Barbara married her true love, Clarence E. Rembert, and together they welcomed two children, Ronald and Raquel. Barbara's relationship with her daughter Raquel was particularly special, and the loss of Raquel on April 24, 2012, left an indelible mark on her heart. Despite the trials that life brought her, Barbara remained a beacon of warmth and creativity.

Barbara was a talented homemaker, pouring her love for design into the interiors of her home and those of friends and family. Her keen eye for fashion was renowned-she had a distinctive flair that was bold and provocative. With a natural ability to mix and match styles, she shared her fashion expertise generously, helping those around her to express themselves through their attire.

Music was another passion of Barbara's life. She found joy in contemporary jazz, classic jazz, and oldies, often singing along to her favorite tunes with enthusiasm and spirit. She lit up any room with her infectious love for music and brought a smile to many faces.

Barbara was preceded in death by: Julius Wardlaw and Ida Wardlaw

Barbara leaves behind a loving family: her son Ronald Rembert; daughter in-law Tywana Rembert; brother Charles Wardlaw; granddaughters; Whitnee Rembert, Payton Rembert; Jasmin Rembert, Amani Rembert, and Ranada James. Grandson Tahj Rembert. nephews, Charles and Julius Wardlaw, and her nieces, Sherri and Shyra Wardlaw.

Her vibrant spirit, creativity, and warmth will be missed greatly, but her legacy will continue to inspire all who knew her.
