

Ecclesiastes 3:1-5

There is an appointed time for everything. And there is a time for every matter under heaven—

A time to give birth and a time to die;

A time to plant and a time to uproot what is planted.

A time to kill and a time to heal;

A time to tear down and a time to build up.

A time to weep and a time to laugh;

A time to mourn and a time to dance.

A time to throw stones and a time to gather stones;

A time to embrace and a time to shun embracing.

Acknowledgments

A friendly smile, a casual touch, these are the things that mean so much. To know you are with us in our time of sorrow, sharing our prayers, today and tomorrow. God gives us comfort in the form of good Friends. May His peace be with you, His love never ends. Special thank you to Katrina Johnson, Earl Johnson, and friends and family that helped out.

Obituary

Shawntase Maurice Beavers, also known as "Man-Man," witnessed the sun rising on February 10th, 1989, and it set on December 23, 2023, at the age of 34. He resided in Cincinnati, Ohio, and completed high school, working numerous jobs. Shawntase loved to dance, dress nicely, and cherished his children and his bearded dragon lizards. He enjoyed having fun with family and embracing life. He always had a plan.

Shawntase is survived by his mother, Earlena Johnson Groomes, father Adolphous Beavers, step father Roggie Groomes, sisters Sylvia Johnson, Cortnei Beavers, Padrann Thomas, Docela Macpherson, Emmi Groomes, brothers Leonard Johnson, Docquase Bates, Darius Hiard, Emori Groomes, grandmothers Barbara Prince and Sylvia Colbert, along with a host of aunts, uncles, nieces, cousins, and friends.

Shawntase leaves behind four children: Shawnquez Beavers-Jones and his mother Chanel Jones, Amicia Green; Shawntase Beavers, Jr. and their mother Alicia Green; and Syla Latimer and her mother (rest in peace) Sheron Latimer. Shawntase is on his way home to join his brother Leontae Johnson, David Carter, as well as his grandfather Earl Lewis.
