Obituary

Bobby Lee Gaddy was born on October 22, 1941, in Detroit, Michigan, to Robert and Lenolia Gaddy (both of whom preceded him in death), Bobby passed away on September 9, 2025. He leaves behind a legacy of faith, service, creativity, and love for his family.

Bobby grew up attending a Pentecostal church, where his faith was nurtured from a young age. During his youth, he preached and helped spread the gospel, planting seeds of encouragement and hope that touched many lives. His love for God remained a guiding light throughout his life.

As a child, Bobby enjoyed building model airplanes and developed a passion for painting, an art form he carried with him into adulthood. His creativity and curiosity were matched by a deep love of learning.

In 1966, Bobby proudly enlisted in the United States Army, where he served honorably until 1990. During his distinguished career, he served in Vietnam and was awarded numerous medals and commendations for his courage and commitment, including the Bronze Star, Silver Star, National Defense Service Medal, Army Achievement Medal, Army Good Conduct Medal, Army Service Ribbon, Vietnam Service Medal, Republic of Vietnam Campaign Medal, Noncommissioned Officer Professional Development Ribbon, and multiple Overseas Service Bars. His service was a testament to his strength, leadership, and devotion to his country.

Bobby valued education and went on to attend Chaminade College of Honolulu and Cameron University, where he proudly earned his bachelor's degree.

He was married and blessed with three children: sons Robert and Kenny Gaddy, and daughter Ursula Turner. He also lovingly embraced his stepson, Christopher McCant. Bobby cherished his role as a father and found joy in supporting and guiding his family.

Recessional

I am the resurrection, and the life: he that believeth in me, though he were dead, yet shall he live: And whosoever liveth and

Believeth in me shall never die.

St. John 11:25-26

The LORD is my Shepherd;
I shall not want.

He maketh me to lie down in green pastures:

He leadeth me beside the still waters,
He restoreth my soul:

He leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for His name's sake. Yea though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death.

*I will fear no evil:
for Thou art with me;*

Thy rod and Thy staff they comfort me.

Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies

Thou anointest my head with oil; My cup runneth over

Surely goodness & mercy shall follow me

all the days of my life;

And I will dwell in the house of the LORD forever.

- Psalm 23

*.The battle is over , the war is won. A faithful servant, his work is done.
He stood with honor, he walked with grace. Now he behold his Savior's face
No more the trials, no more the pain. In Heaven's light, he shall remain.
His soul is free, his heart is whole. God has received his precious soul.
Rest now, brave soldier, in God's embrace. Surrounded by love, redeemed by grace.
Your legacy lives, your memory stays, Forever cherished, through all our days.*

I tell you the truth, whoever hears my word and believes him who sent Me has eternal life and will not be condemned; he has crossed over from death to life.

I tell you the truth, a time is coming and has now come when the dead will hear the voice of the Son of God and those who hear will live.

IF I SHOULD GO TOMORROW

If I should go tomorrow It would never be goodbye, For I have left my heart with you, So don't you ever cry. The love that's deep within me, Shall reach you from the stars, You'll feel it from the heavens, And it will heal the scars.

To Those Whom I Love & Those Who Love Me When I am gone, release me, let me go. I have so many things to see and do, You mustn't tie yourself to me with too many tears, But be thankful we had so many good years. I gave you my love, and you can only guess How much you've given me in happiness. I thank you for the love that you have shown, But now it is time I traveled on alone. So grieve for me a while, if grieve you must, Then let your grief be comforted by trust. It is only for a while that we must part, So treasure the memories within your heart. I won't be far away for life goes on. And if you need me, call and I will come. Though you can't see or touch me, I will be near.

And if you listen with your heart, you'll hear, All my love around you soft and clear. And then, when you come this way alone, I'll greet you with a smile and a 'Welcome Home'!
