

OBITUARY

Ona, a cherished member of the community and a devoted family matriarch, passed away peacefully on February 27, 2025, in Kopperl, Texas. Born on September 9, 1945, in Meridian, Texas, Ona left behind a rich legacy filled with love, dedication, and a passionate spirit.

Ona achieved a rewarding career as a seamstress at Walls before retiring. She was known for her meticulous craftsmanship and her ability to bring joy to others through her creations.

Ona was a devoted member of the Full Gospel Church in Rio Vista, where she served her Lord faithfully. Her faith was central to her life and was a guiding light for her family and friends. Ona had a delightful passion for music, particularly her beloved guitar, which she played with joy and enthusiasm.

A dedicated mother and grandmother, Ona took immense pride in caring for her family. She is survived by her spouse, Melvin Todd; her children, Donna Lynn Barker and David Barker; and her grandchildren: Cassi Lynn Kasperek, Preston Dean Kasperek, Kenneth Barker, Joseph Barker, Kristin Perkins, Chase Lacey, Lauren Lacey, Ellen Don, Melin, as well as numerous family members that she held dear to her heart.

Ona is preceded in death by her parents, Clifford Etchison and Altha Cummings, and her son, Billy Barker.

Celebrating the Life of

Ona Bell Etchison Todd

1945-2025

23rd Psalm

*The Lord is my shepherd; I shall not want.
He maketh me to lie down in green pastures:
He leadeth me beside the still waters.
He restoreth my soul:
He leadeth me in the paths
of righteousness for his name's sake.
Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil:
for thou art with me;
thy rod and thy staff they comfort me.
Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies:
thou anointest my head with oil;
my cup runneth over.
Surely goodness and mercy
shall follow me all the days of my life:
and I will dwell in the house of the Lord for ever.*
