

In Tribute
God's Garden

God looked around His garden
And He found an empty place
He then looked down upon the earth
And saw your tired face.
He put His arms around you
And lifted you to rest;
God's Garden must be beautiful
He always takes the best.
He knew that you were suffering
He knew you were in pain.
He knew that you would never
Get well on earth again.
He saw the road was getting rough
And the hills were hard to climb.
So he closed your weary eyelids
And whispered, "Peace be Thine".
It broke our hearts to lose you,
But you did not go alone,
For part of us went with you
The day God welcomed you home.

Life's Reflections

CHARLENE CASTON was born on September 29, 1946 to the late Andrew Williams and Jennie Williams in Brooklyn, New York.

Charlene attended and graduated from the New York City public school system receiving her high school diploma. In 1985, Charlene became a School Crossing Guard working for 1 Police Plaza, protecting the safety of children; a job that she loved and held for 15 years. Those that knew Charlene knew that she was a vibrant, courageous, caring loving woman. She was an amazing cook that was a trait that she passed down to her children. She loved her children and grandchildren with her whole heart. Her children and grandchildren got the best version of her. Her laughter and her smile was infectious no matter what type of day that you were having, she made it better.

On Saturday, April 18, 2026 at 5:38 a.m. at MUSC Kershaw Hospital in Camden, South Carolina, God called her home at the age of 79.

Charlene leaves behind her seven daughters, Juanita, Odetta, Daphney, Yolanda, Regina, Kim, and Nedie; two bonus daughters, Michelle and Betty; her sister, Desiree Gonzalez; her brother-in-law, Alfonso Gonzalez; five sons-in-law, Tony, Donald, Marvin, Noel and Jermont; seven nieces, seven nephews, twenty-nine grandchildren and fifty-nine great-grandchildren and two great-great-grandchildren, and a host of cousins and friends.

Her legacy will live on forever through her family. You lived a great life filled with love and happiness and laughter, you will forever live in our hearts and memories. Fly high, our beautiful angel.
