

ETERNAL PEACE

*We gather here with hearts so low,
As our beloved rests, in earth below.
But know that they are not truly gone,
To a higher realm, they now have flown.*

*In Allah's grace, they find their rest,
A peaceful haven, truly blessed.
No more the pain, no more the strife,
Just eternal peace, in the coming life.*

*Though tears may fall,
and grief may bind,*

Let faith and hope forever find

A solace deep within our soul,

That Allah's plan is always whole.

We love you, Grandpa!

HIS STORY

James Earl Rodgers Jr. was born to the late Geraldine Tyler and James Rodgers Sr. on April 29th, 1960. James departed this world on April 29th, 2025.

James was educated in both the parochial and public school systems, graduating from Simon Gratz High School in 1978.

James was employed in various jobs and worked at Liberty Property and Trust for 16 years until their closing, when he became an assistant manager at Sweet Home Health Care.

Outside of his professional life, James valued his time spent with his wife, kids, grandchildren as well as his step mother, Evelyn Matthews. He was also known for being a collector of things he liked.

James' legacy is treasured by his loving wife Lisa Rodgers, two sons, James III and Michael; four bonus sons, Proseno, Ekime, Rahime, Julmal; two bonus daughters, Venus (who preceded him in death), Leanda; siblings, Beverly, Rosalind, Wilbur, Michael, Brian, Butter, Darlene and David; daughters in love, Saleemah, Semer, and Monica; and a host of grandchildren and great grandchildren, nieces, nephews and friends.

Lovingly Submitted,
