

Celebrating the Life of Spiritual Peace and Happiness

by Lenzspot

Close your eyes breathe it in, let the stillness begin.
Feel the light in your chest, let your soul find rest.
You've been chasing, always trying, running fast, but never finding what was waiting deep inside, a peace that never hides.
No more fear, no more fight, just the calm of endless light.
When you let go you'll see, the love that sets you free.

Spiritual peace and happiness,
It's not out there, it's within your chest.
When you stop the noise and listen close
You'll find the truth your spirit knows.
Spiritual peaceful and happiness,
You were born with all of this, let the light wash over you,
And feel your heart renew, and feel your heart renew.

Walk slow, breathe deep, stay kind, leave the heavy world behind, every tear, every scar, led you right to where you are.
You don't need to prove your worth, you've been, magic since your birth.
Every moment, every breathe is love that never left.

Spiritual peace and happiness,
It's not out there, it's within your chest.
When you stop the noise and listen close,
You'll find the truth your spirit knows.
Spiritual peace and happiness,
You were born, with all of this, let the light wash over you,
And feel your heart renew, and feel your heart renew.

Let go, be free, let your soul align
You're defined by design.
Every step, every smile, every day,
Peace and Happiness will stay.
