Obituary

JOSEPH WILLIAM HALL was born on July 13, 1960, to the late Harrison and Dolores Hall (nee Franklin). He was the sixth child born of eight children. He attended Baltimore City Public Schools until transitioning to Baltimore County Schools where he graduated from Woodlawn Senior High in 1978.

God called Joseph home to rest on April 18, 2023, at Sinai Hospital. Joseph's sister Laraine Coates, brother Harrison Hall and co-parent Howard Hunt preceded him in death.

Joseph (aka Joey) with his willingness to learn even as a child acquired several different jobs in his lifetime. He worked for Brown's Funeral Home, Matthew's Construction Company, District Photo, Weyhauser, McCormick, Door Dash, and Adecco. Joey was a quiet man, so quiet that you would be startled by his presence. Once Joe warmed up to you he would take hold of the conversations, that is after you said, "Hello Joe!" Joe was a very private man, who loved his family. Joe never really called you by name, rather he used nicknames such as old boy, old girl, your wife, your husband or he'd just "wave or nod" at you. Joe had one of those deep voices people paid attention to. He was fun, funny, caring and always wanted to remind you birthdays were special. Joe loved driving, horror movies, Vincent Price and Michael Jackson music. Joey had a special interest in the weather. He loved wintertime and especially snow. The family's personal weatherman. Joseph's special friend Yulonda Moulden, of 25 years and her children, became his extended family.

He leaves to carry on his legacy while he takes his rest: sisters, Christine Simpson, Vera Hall, Joan Hall (Alfred Whittington), Karen Blango (Scott); brother, Phillip Hall (Theresa); aunts, Sylvia Holmes and Theresa Franklin; and a host of nieces, nephews, great nieces, great nephews, great-greats, cousins (notable - Sherniece Smith, raised as a sibling with Joey); and a devoted friend Yulonda Moulden and her daughter (Candice), son (Seven).

RECESSIONAL HYMN "Going Up Yonder"

I Wish Heaven Had A Phone

I wish Heaven had a phone so I could hear your voice again.

I thought of you today, but that is nothing new,

I thought about you yesterday and days before that too.

I think of you in silence, I often speak your name,

All I have are memories and your picture in a frame.

Our memory is a keepsake from which I'll never part,

God has you in His arms, I have you in my heart.

Our heartfelt Love, The Family
