Remember Me

To the living, I am gone,
To the sorrowful, I will never return,
To the angry, I was cheated,
But to the happy, I am at peace,
And to the faithful, I have never left.
I cannot speak, but I can listen.
I cannot be seen, but I can be heard.
So as you stand upon a shore gazing at a beautiful sea,
As you look upon a flower and admire its simplicity,
Remember me.

Remember me in your heart:

Your thoughts, and your memories,
Of the times we loved,
The times we cried,
The times we fought,
The times we laughed.
For if you always think of me,
I will never have gone.

"Poem for Marva"

Marva walked this life with quiet grace,
A loving heart, a gentle face.
She gave her strength, her time, her care,
To family, friends, and those in prayer.

Through children, grandchildren, great ones too,
Her legacy remains strong and true.
Through heaven now has claimed her rest,
On earth, her love still does it's best.

Life Reflections

Marva Louise Wilson peacefully entered eternal rest on January 11, 2026. Born on December 14, 1948, Marva lived a life marked by quiet grace, unwavering love, and deep devotion to her family and faith.

Marva was the beloved daughter of John Franklin Forbush Sr. and Willie Mae Forbush, both of whom preceded her in death. She was also preceded in death by her siblings Gregory Forbush, Herbert Forbush, John Forbush, and Glenn Forbush; her husband Thurman Wilson; and her son Anthony Forbush.

Marva received her education in the Kansas City metropolitan area and dedicated many years of service working at Research Hospital, where her compassion and strong work ethic were evident to all who knew her.

She leaves to cherish her memory her daughters Melinda Wilson and Angela Wilson; her grandchildren Shantell, Miciah, Kiara, Trevion, and Martise; and her great-grandchildren Chloe, James, Aubri, Karlie, Paisley, and Rue.

Marva walked this life with a gentle spirit and a heart full of care. She found joy in tending to her plants, playing her lottery tickets, and faithfully watching Wheel of Fortune. Though she has gained her heavenly rest, her love remains alive in the hearts of her family.
