

Steve Hurley, son of Jerry and Wilma (DeMoss) Hurley, was born on March 14, 1964 in Emmetsburg, Iowa. Steve attended his school years in Emmetsburg Schools. In 1985, Steve moved into Horizons 21st Street Group Home. He was employed at Horizons Unlimited in various jobs.

Steve enjoyed working at the Horizons can redemption center the most. Meeting and talking with all the people in our community coming into the can center. He also enjoyed going to school at Emmetsburg College. Steve was active in the Special Olympics for years, receiving medals and ribbons for his participation in various events.

Steve enjoyed coming home every weekend with his family, going out to eat on Sunday and going shopping to Spencer, Iowa and always attending church every Sunday. Steve was a member of St. Paul Lutheran Church. He also loved to go fishing and picnics with his family during the summer. Steve always looked forward to the Group Home Christmas party that his parents, Jerry and Wilma Hurley, would have for everyone at the Group Home every year.

Steve was preceded in death by his father, Jerry Hurley; grandparents, William and Emma DeMoss and Homer and Dorothy Hurley.

Left to cherish Steve's memory are his mother, Wilma; sisters, Julie (Joe) Moen and Janice (Jay) Kunz; nieces, nephews, cousins, many relatives and countless friends, and Steve's Group Home family.

After services, Steve's family would like to invite everyone to come to the church for a meal and fellowship to celebrate Steve's homecoming to Heaven to be with Jesus.

Psalm 91

Those who live in the shelter of the Most High will find rest in the shadow of the Almighty. This I declare of the Lord; He alone is my refuge, my place of safety; he is my God, and I am trusting him. For he will rescue you from every trap and protect you from the fatal plague. He will shield you with his wings. He will shelter you with his feathers. His faithful promises are your armor and protection. Do not be afraid of the terrors of the night, nor fear the dangers of the day, nor dread the plague that stalks in the darkness, nor the disaster that strikes at midday. Though a thousand fall at your side, though ten thousand are dying around you, these evils will not touch you. But you will see it with your eyes; you will see how the wicked are punished. If you make the Lord your refuge, if you make the Most High your shelter, No evil will conquer you; no plague will come near your dwelling. For he orders his angels to protect you wherever you go. They will hold you with their hands to keep you from striking your foot on a stone. You will trample down lions and poisonous snakes; you will crush fierce lions and serpents under your feet! The lord says, "I will rescue those who love me. I will protect those who trust in my name. When they call on me, I will answer; I will be with them in trouble. I will rescue them and honor them. I will satisfy them with a long life and give them my salvation."
