
Pallbearers

Donald Yarbrough, II Gregory Davis Darryl J. Yarbrough
Donald Yarbrough, III Jessie Davis Darryl Yarbrough
 Jaquan Wright

Honorary Pallbearers

Darrell G. Davis Michael Davis Aaron Dismuke

If Tears Could Build A Stairway

If tears could build a stairway, and memories a lane.
I would walk right up to Heaven and bring you back again.

No farewell words were spoken,
No time to say "Goodbye".
You were gone before I knew it,
And only God knows why.

My heart still aches with sadness,
And secret tears still flow.
What it meant to love you-
No one can ever know.

But now I know that you want me to mourn for you no more;
To remember all the happy times
Life still has much in store.

Since you'll never be forgotten,
I pledge to you today
A hallowed place in my heart
Is where you'll always stay.

Arrangements Trusted To

James H. Cole Home for Funerals, Inc.
2624 W Grand Blvd | Detroit, MI 48208
Phone: 313.873.0771 Fax: (313) 972-4405

Programs by: Breathless Creations ♦ gobreathless@gmail.com

*A Homegoing
Celebration for*

David "Run" Allen Davis

Sunrise
March 22, 1967

Sunset
February 2, 2022

Memorial Service

Friday, February 11, 2022
3:30 pm

James H. Cole Home for Funerals, Inc.
2624 W Grand Blvd
Detroit, MI 48208

Evangelist Robin Farmer Anderson, Eulogist

The Obituary

Mr. David Allen Davis (who was more famously known as “Run”) was born March 22, 1967, in Detroit, Michigan to Gwendolyn Davis (Yarbrough-Gordon) and David Allen McKalpain.

David accepted Christ at an early age and was a member of Sacred Heart Church in Detroit, Michigan.

David attended the Detroit Public and Private School system. While in high school at Truman, David played football and enjoyed playing basketball and baseball as well. After high school, David began working in the entertainment and night life industry as a set-up crew member for special events. Recently, he began working for Bob Evans restaurant as a dishwasher.

David was the most loyal fan of the Los Angeles Lakers and Dallas Cowboys franchise that most of us have ever met. He was also the biggest supporter of the Adidas clothing and shoe collection. David was a very honest and opinionated guy. The people around him never had to guess how he felt about anything or anyone. David had a love for good music, to know him is to know how much he loved the artist Tupac Shakur.

David unexpectedly departed this life February 2, 2022. He was preceded in death by his stepfather, Donald Yarbrough; maternal grandmother, Willie Mae Davis (whom he shares a birthday with), and many other relatives. He leaves to cherish his memories; mother, Gwendolyn Yarbrough-Gordon; only son, Daniel Wilson; siblings, Monica, Tina Marie Woods, Donald Yarbrough, Darryl Yarbrough, Michael Washington, Rayfield Yarbrough, Donald Brown, Shara Jones, Darnell Washington; wife, Valerie Green-Davis, along with many nieces, nephews, cousins, aunts and uncles.

Order of Service

Musical Prelude	Brian Lee
Prayer	Evangelist Robin Farmer Anderson
Scripture Reading.....	Robin Farmer Anderson
Musical Selection.....	Sambretha Bailey
Obituary & Acknowledgments	Barbara Staunton
Reflections	Shara Jones
Remarks	Family & Friends
“2 minutes please”
Musical Selection.....	Sambretha Bailey
Eulogy	Evangelist Robin Farmer Anderson
Recessional	Brian Lee
Repast.....	Hall Post 1125

15403 Harper Avenue
Detroit, MI 48224

Family Acknowledgments

With sincere appreciation, our family hereby acknowledge, the many expressions of kindness and concern during our time of bereavement for our loved one. Thank you and may God bless you.