

Reba Jo Conway

April 25, 1954

January 25, 2022

When my time on earth is done, and I am no more
Don't remember how I found death knocking on my door
Don't bother me with the details of how I met with my demise
Don't worry for my soul or let tears flow from your eyes

Know, when I go, you rest assured I am in a better place
I have walked on golden streets and have seen my Savior's face
I have hugged my father's neck and seen my granny, too
I will bask in God's glorious love as I wait for you

Remember how I loved the Lord and how I sang for Him
Tell my family left behind how much I still love them
Share stories of my silly side and laughter I have caused
Don't weep for me, my last request is that you take a pause...

To check your heart and soul condition, have you made your peace with God?
I pray you all will do His will and reach others while here you trod
So that your smiling face I'll see when your earthly race is run
Don't cry for me, but celebrate; I am forever with the Son

Celebration of Life Ceremony

Saturday ~ March 19, 2022

Two O'clock in the Afternoon

CPN North Reunion Hall
Shawnee, Oklahoma

Reba Jo Conway

April 25, 1954

January 25, 2022

When my time on earth is done, and I am no more
Don't remember how I found death knocking on my door
Don't bother me with the details of how I met with my demise
Don't worry for my soul or let tears flow from your eyes

Know, when I go, you rest assured I am in a better place
I have walked on golden streets and have seen my Savior's face
I have hugged my father's neck and seen my granny, too
I will bask in God's glorious love as I wait for you

Remember how I loved the Lord and how I sang for Him
Tell my family left behind how much I still love them
Share stories of my silly side and laughter I have caused
Don't weep for me, my last request is that you take a pause...

To check your heart and soul condition, have you made your peace with God?
I pray you all will do His will and reach others while here you trod
So that your smiling face I'll see when your earthly race is run
Don't cry for me, but celebrate; I am forever with the Son

Celebration of Life Ceremony

Saturday ~ March 19, 2022

Two O'clock in the Afternoon

CPN North Reunion Hall
Shawnee, Oklahoma

Remembering Reba

Reba Jo (Wano) Conway, age 67, Shawnee resident passed away Tuesday, January 25, 2022 in Shawnee.

Reba was born April 25, 1954 in Pawnee, OK to Rev. Franklin S. Wano and Dorothy L. (Turner) Wano. She grew up in Shawnee and graduated from Shawnee High School in 1972. She later attended Gordon Cooper Vo-Tech and Seminole State College. She married Floyd A Conway in 1976 and had four children: Brian, Eva Rena, David and Dustin. Reba was a long time resident of Tecumseh. She was also a member of Citizen Potawatomi Nation and loved her Indian heritage. She loved researching all that she could about it.

Reba grew up in church her entire life. She attended the Full Gospel Assembly Church, in Tecumseh, where her father, Rev Franklin Wano, was the pastor until his death in 1989.

She never met a stranger she didn't know and loved everyone she came into contact with. Her light shined so bright and her heart was as big as the sea. The love she had for her family was immeasurable and was without end. Family always came first. She was an avid singer and piano player. She touched many people's lives with her gospel singing. If she wasn't singing and playing the piano, she was talking about the Lord. She never missed a chance to do so.

Survivors include her children, David Conway of Shawnee, Dustin Conway of Choctaw, and Eva Rena Conway of Midwest City and two grandchildren, Coby Conway and Kayedence Conway. Reba was preceded in death by her son, Brian Conway, husband, Floyd Conway, sister, Deborah Robinson and brother, Dale Wano.

pray + faith + blessed

A mother's love is a light to our very soul
To have a Godly mother is a blessing you well know
Her spirit will never fade away, it lives within your heart
And though she is in heaven now, she's near to where you are

She has hugged loved ones missed and seen her Savior's face
She is basking in the light of His loving peace and grace
She has taken a quiet stroll upon those streets of gold
She has touched a crystal sea and seen beauties yet untold

She feels no pain or doubt or fear in the first time she has known

She waits for you until that day you finally make it home
When your race down here is done and you are called away
You will know the happiness the glory she knows today

Remembering Reba

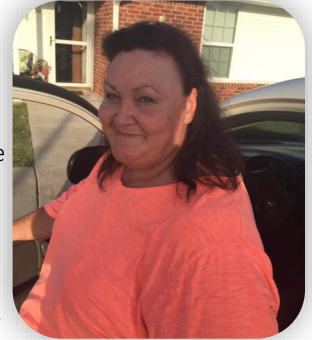

Reba Jo (Wano) Conway, age 67, Shawnee resident passed away Tuesday, January 25, 2022 in Shawnee.

Reba was born April 25, 1954 in Pawnee, OK to Rev. Franklin S. Wano and Dorothy L. (Turner) Wano. She grew up in Shawnee and graduated from Shawnee High School in 1972. She later attended Gordon Cooper Vo-Tech and Seminole State College. She married Floyd A Conway in 1976 and had four children: Brian, Eva Rena, David and Dustin. Reba was a long time resident of Tecumseh. She was also a member of Citizen Potawatomi Nation and loved her Indian heritage. She loved researching all that she could about it.

Reba grew up in church her entire life. She attended the Full Gospel Assembly Church, in Tecumseh, where her father, Rev Franklin Wano, was the pastor until his death in 1989.

She never met a stranger she didn't know and loved everyone she came into contact with. Her light shined so bright and her heart was as big as the sea. The love she had for her family was immeasurable and was without end. Family always came first. She was an avid singer and piano player. She touched many people's lives with her gospel singing. If she wasn't singing and playing the piano, she was talking about the Lord. She never missed a chance to do so.

Survivors include her children, David Conway of Shawnee, Dustin Conway of Choctaw, and Eva Rena Conway of Midwest City and two grandchildren, Coby Conway and Kayedence Conway. Reba was preceded in death by her son, Brian Conway, husband, Floyd Conway, sister, Deborah Robinson and brother, Dale Wano.

pray + faith + blessed

A mother's love is a light to our very soul
To have a Godly mother is a blessing you well know
Her spirit will never fade away, it lives within your heart
And though she is in heaven now, she's near to where you are

She has hugged loved ones missed and seen her Savior's face
She is basking in the light of His loving peace and grace
She has taken a quiet stroll upon those streets of gold
She has touched a crystal sea and seen beauties yet untold

She feels no pain or doubt or fear in the first time she has known

She waits for you until that day you finally make it home
When your race down here is done and you are called away
You will know the happiness the glory she knows today