Obituary

William Carnell Luckey, was born on January 3, 1962, to Mae Rainey and William George Hall in Cincinnati, Ohio. He entered his eternal life on April 8, 2022, in Cincinnati, Ohio.

From a young age Carnell was a member of the first Pentecostal church of Blue Ash. He had a love for skating with his childhood friend Tim Hodge, as well as his brother and his loving Uncle Gibbs. He enjoyed boating and fishing with his uncles, cousins, and friends. During his teenage years Luckey learned how to ride horses from his Uncle Gibbs. He savored spending time with family and friends having a good time.

During his childhood, he attended Maple Dale Elementary in the Sycamore School District. He was a known star baseball player at Lynchburg Clay High School in Lynchburg, Ohio. While attending Princeton High School he laid eyes on his future wife Jennifer without her knowing. Later in life he successfully received his GED in order to get his CDLs to become a successful truck driver. He was a lifelong member of the Cincinnati Ohio Buccaneers Motorcycle Club. Being a Buccaneers member, he was given the name Bug Juice, because he was known to have bugs on his windshield. During his time with this Motorcycle Club, he traveled the USA and raised funds for the homeless and other nonprofit organizations.

At a young age he was beside his stepfather Sydney Rainey at the Rainey Brother Waste Management Company. He was a dedicated employee of Earth Management Trucking Inc. for several decades. He was also an owner-operator of Luckey Trucking Company which allowed him to travel making several trips around the United States.

Luckey married the love of his life Jennifer Marie Saunders November 18, 1994. Together they raised their daughter Ariel Saunders. They enjoyed fishing trips, amusement parks, and beaches including small road trips. Going out to eat was their favorite thing to do including trying new things.

Carnell was preceded in death by his father William George Hall; Stepfather Sydney Rainey; His three sisters Thomaseana Luckey, Sabrina Smith, and Patricia Jones as well as a host of aunts, uncles, and other relatives.

Carnell leaves to Cherish his memories: His loving wife; Jennifer Marie Saunders-Luckey; His Mother: Mae Rainey, Three children; Ariel Saunders, Branden Carnell Smith, Jamie Harrison (Ronald) Two Sister; Artheria O'Neal (James Sr.) LaNese Hall; Two Brothers; Delrico Luckey (Tammy), George Hall (Ernestine). Along with a host of aunts, uncles, nieces, nephews, great-nieces, great-nephews family and friends.
