The Obituary

Joseph Draughon Jr, affectionately known as "Pumpkin" and "Can't get right" was born to the late Helen James and Joseph Draughon Sr. on October 7, 1964, in Columbus, Ohio. As a child Joe enjoyed summers in North Carolina with his aunts, uncles, and cousins. From an early age he fell in love with basketball and was an excellent player. He attended South High School and was employed as a window cleaner.

Joe loved being surrounded by family and friends. His jokes and laughter forever kept the party going. He enjoyed traveling, camping, attending his annual family reunion, and of course riding his motorcycle! He was a past member of the Trojans, Zulu's and Magnum Force Motorcycle Clubs. He was a current member of the Rolling Thunder Camping Club. He will be forever missed. "On Errrrything".

Joseph was preceded in death by his grandmother Romelia McLean, mother Helen James, and two sisters Sheila Draughon and Regina James, and special uncle Rudolph Mclean. Left to cherish his memories are wife, Yvonne Draughon, father Joseph (Ernestine) Draughon Sr., and children Cieaira (Lorenzo) Hargrove, Deyshaun Jones, Cassandra Draughon, Briana Draughon, and Shauday Draughon, siblings, Samantha Draughon, Michael Draughon, Stephen Jackson, Joshua Martin, Tiffany Martin and Clyde Ector, special aunt Susie Mclean, grandchildren, Jevon Noaks, Isrielle Burks, Richard Burks, Levi Draughon, Lorenzo Hargrove Jr., and Marlee Lewis, nieces, nephews, club brothers and friends.
