

The LORD is my Shepherd;
I shall not want.

He maketh me to
lie down in green pastures:

He leadeth me beside the still waters,

He restoreth my soul:

He leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for His name's sake. Yea though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death.

*I will fear no evil:
for Thou art with me;*
Thy rod and Thy staff they comfort me.

Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies

Thou anointest my head with oil; My cup runneth over

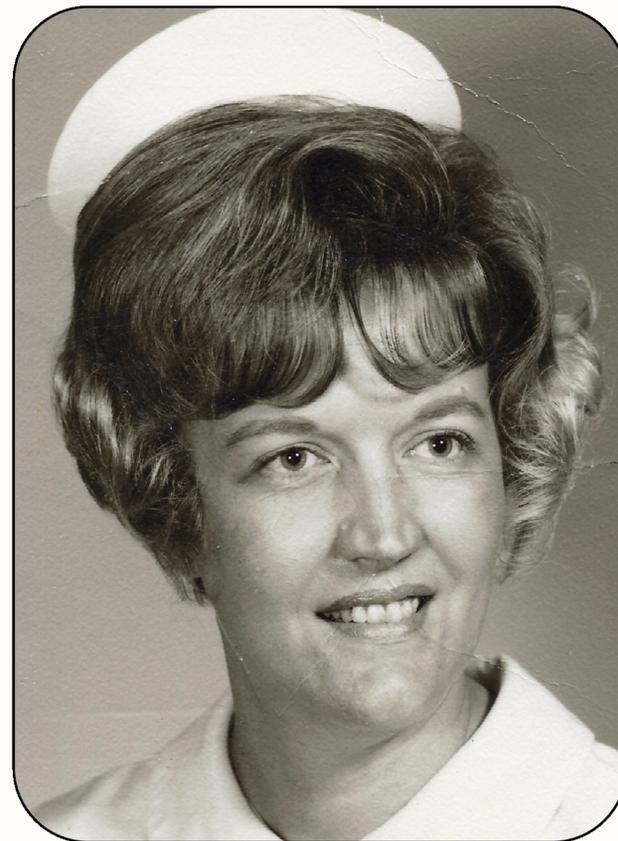

Surely goodness & mercy shall follow me
all the days of my life;

And I will dwell in the house
of the LORD forever.
- Psalm 23

"Our Family Caring for Your Family"

In Loving Memory of

*Melva Lenora
Swanson*

1938 ~ 2026

Melva Lenora Swanson was born on April 14, 1938, in Eldorado, Oklahoma, to Canie L. and Hazel Jewel (Barnes) Hankins. She was lovingly raised in the close-knit community of Eldorado, where she spent her childhood and formed lifelong friendships. Lenora graduated from Eldorado High School. Following graduation, she pursued her passion for caring for others by earning an associate degree in nursing, beginning a path of service and compassion that would touch many lives.

Lenora is remembered as a devoted and loving mother who poured her heart into raising her two sons. She nurtured them with unwavering love, guidance, and strength, creating a home filled with warmth and support.

Her nursing career reflected the same compassion she showed her family. Through her work with the Children First Program at the health department, Lenora found her true calling in caring for children and supporting expectant mothers. She had a special gift for offering comfort, encouragement, and steady guidance during some of life's most tender moments.

Outside of her work, Lenora found joy in creative expression. She enjoyed crafting, especially ceramics and calligraphy, and took pride in creating beautiful, meaningful pieces.

Lenora peacefully passed from this life on February 10, 2026, at the age of 87. She was preceded in death by her beloved parents.

Those left to cherish her memory include her two sons, Eldon Huckabay and his wife, Jene and Eric Thompson; her sister, Wanda Ryburn and her husband, Jess; her niece, Jaymi Chambless; four grandchildren; Brian Huckabay and his wife, Mayra, Jonathan Huckabay and his wife, Sarah, and Austin Huckabay and his wife, Alissa, and Jynnisssa Thompson; six great-grandchildren; Hayden, Hanna, Hollis, Alex, Aiden, and Collins Huckabay and many other relatives and dear friends whose lives were blessed by knowing her.
