Celebration of Life

Doris Jean Thompson Robinson was born on January 6, 1949, in Hopkinsville, Kentucky. She was a beloved daughter, mother, grandmother, sister, aunt, and friend whose life was filled with love, creativity, service, and dedication to others.

Doris received her early education at Mathison Junior High School in California. She later continued her education through Job Corps in Florida, where she completed her high school education. Her desire to learn continued throughout her life. She attended colleges in Kansas and Ohio and ultimately earned her Bachelor of Arts degree from Lane Community College in California.

Doris was a woman of many talents and passions. For 25-30 years, she proudly worked as a beautician, using her gift and creativity to make others feel beautiful and confident. She also dedicated more than 25 years to working as a Certified Nursing Assistant (CNA), caring for others with compassion, patience, and a servant's heart. Through both careers, Doris touched many lives and left an impression on the people she served.

Her faith was an important part of her life. Doris was a faithful member of Gladding Community Church in Oakland, California, where she worshipped and fellowshiped with her church family for many years. Later in life, she relocated to Wichita, Kansas, where she continued her journey surrounded by family and loved ones.

Doris enjoyed many hobbies and creative activities. She loved sewing, doing hair, painting, arts and crafts, and gymnastics. Her creativity was evident in the things she made and the joy she brought to those around her. She had a special way of turning ordinary moments into opportunities to create, laugh, love, and connect with others. Doris departed this life peacefully on August 21, 2026, in Wichita, Kansas, leaving behind a beautiful legacy of love, strength, creativity, faith, and family.

Doris was preceded in death by her beloved husband, Bobby Ray Robinson, who shared five years of marriage with her; her parents, William G. Howard and Georgia Mae Dix; and her brothers, George Howard and John Howard.

Doris leaves to cherish her memory her loving daughter, Angela Howard-Clement, and son, Christopher Howard; her sisters, Patricia Ziegler and Kathy Howard; and her brothers, William Howard, Carl Howard, and Craig Howard.

She will also be lovingly remembered by her grandchildren, Juel (Andre) Scott and Chalisa Howard; her great-grandchildren, Andrea Scott, Phillip Scott, and Julie Scott; along with a host of nieces, nephews, extended family members, friends, and all those whose lives she touched throughout the years.
