Weep not for me

Weep not for me through I am gone into that gentle night,
Grieve if you will, but not for long upon my soul's sweet flight,
I am at peace, my souls at rest there is no need for tears.
For with your love, I was so blessed for all those many years.
There is no pain, I suffer not, the fear now all is gone.
Put now these things out of your thoughts in your memory I live on.
Remember not my fight for breath remember not the strife,
Please do not dwell upon my death but celebrate my life.

Life Reflections

Ann Estelle (King) Brown, favorably known as "Nana" to everyone passed away peacefully at the age of 85 in Greensboro, North Carolina. Ann was born in Kingsville, Texas in 1937, where she lived her early years in a multi-generational home with her parents, Willie King Sr., and Ethel J. King, and 14 siblings.

Ann relocated to Boston, Massachusetts with her husband Harry K. Brown (preceded in death) where they resided in Columbia Point, Dorchester.

Ann spent her career of more than 24 years working for the Polaroid Corporation in the Waltham, Norwood, and Cambridge plants.

After her retirement form Polaroid in 1997, Ann became focused on raising her family and advocating for her grandchildren and great grandchildren, which she played a big role in raising.

Ann loved to cook, and feed friends and neighbors. She never let anyone who entered her home leave hungry. Throughout her life she loved listening to music, dancing, and bowling. Ann was an avid Boston sports fan and enjoyed watching a good game.

Ann is preceded by her father Willie King Sr., her mother Ethel J. (Chase) King; Sisters, Ray June Coleman, Beulah Mae King, and Ethel Mae King; Brothers, Leroy, Johnnie Lee, Willie Jr., Herbert, Roosevelt, Lawrence, and Clarence King; daughter, Karen Estelle; son, Harry Kenneth, and grandson Lance Brown.

Ann leaves to cherish her memory her sons, Michael E. King (Paula) of Oak Ridge, North Carolina; Rodney O. Brown of Fresno, California; her daughter, Jacqueline D. Blount (Dale) of Roxbury, Massachusetts; Sisters, Dorothy Hobson of Kingsville, Texas; Jewel Hayes of San Diego, California; Brothers, Robert, Earl King of Kingsville, Texas, and Ernest King of Corpus Cristy, Texas. Grandchildren Lakeysha Brown, Sharieshe and Kalieshe Brown, and Sha-Dale Brown of Boston, Massachusetts; Michael Fortes (Yesenia) of Saint Cloud, Florida, and Drianna M. King of Oak Ridge, North Carolina. 15 Great grandchildren and 1 Great-great granddaughter. She leaves behind a host of nephews, nieces, cousins, and cherished friends.
