

I'M FREE

*Don't grieve for me, for now I'm free,
 I'm following the path God has laid you see.
 I took His hand when I heard Him call,
 I turned my back and left it all.
 I could not stay another day,
 To laugh, to love, to work or play.
 Tasks left undone must stay that way,
 I found that peace at the close of day.
 If my parting has left a void,
 Then fill it with remembered joy.
 A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss,
 Ah yes, these things I too will miss.
 Be not burdened with times of sorrow,
 I wish you the sunshine of tomorrow.
 My life's been full, I savored much,
 Good friends, good times, a loved one's touch.
 Perhaps my time seemed all too brief,
 Don't lengthen it now with undue grief.
 Lift up your heart and share with me,
 God wanted me now, He set me free.*

LORRAINE'S LEGACY OF LOVE

It is with deep sorrow that we announce the passing of Lorraine Bundy on August 11, 2025. Lorraine was born in Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, February 4, 1939, to Marie Goodmin and Irvin Clayton.

Over the years, she devoted her life to being a devoted wife, mother, grandmother, and great grandmother. She poured her heart into caring for her family, nurturing them with love, wisdom, kindness, and maybe even a grab to the shirt that you'd never see coming. She was known for her spice, sense of humor, and dancing until the sun came up. She found joy in collecting the most beautiful dolls, while letting her great grandchildren treat her as a doll doing her hair. She stood by her family side through thick and thin, a true definition of a ride or die for the ones she loved, and she never complained about it.

She was preceded in death by her granddaughter, Teresa Bundy. Her legacy lives on through her three children Phillip Bundy, Phyllis Barnes, and Gildard Bundy, her eight grandchildren Phyllis L. Barnes, Tyrone Barnes, Rashid Izzard, Phillip Gillard, Ethel Gillard, Tyrone Blume, Steven Bundy, and a host of great grandchildren.

Lovingly Submitted, The Family
