A TRIBUTE FROM HIS NIECES

On behalf of all of Uncle Bo Jack's nieces, thank you for being here today to celebrate his life.

This is not easy for us, because Bo Jack wasn't just our uncle - he was Someone who brought warmth, kindness, and light into every room He entered. He had one of those spirits that made you feel comfortable just being around him.

Bo Jack was truly a gentle soul. He was always nice, always welcoming, and always willing to share a smile or a laugh. He had a love for singing that filled the air and lifted hearts. Sometimes it wasn't about how perfect the song sounded - it was about the joy he felt while singing it. And when Bo Jack sang, you could feel his happiness.

He also loved to walk. Those walks weren't just exercise - they were his peaceful moments, his way of connecting with the world around him. That was Bo Jack... Simple joys, deep appreciation for life, and a quiet strength that many of us admired. To us, he was more than family - he was a presence. Someone who showed love through his actions, who reminded us to enjoy the little things, and who made life feel just a little lighter. We will always remember his voice, his kindness, walks, and most of all, his heart.

Uncle Bo Jack taught us that you don't have to be loud to be powerful, and you don't have to do big things to leave a lasting Impact. His legacy lives on in the memories we carry, the stories we share, and the love that continues to surround him.

Uncle Bo Jack, thank you for being you. Thank you for the smiles, the songs, and the love you gave so freely. You will forever live in our hearts.

Rest peacefully, Uncle. We love you.
