Obituary

On June 14, 1975, in Shreveport, Louisiana, Nathan Lee White and Mary Benjamin White, welcomed to their family a beautiful baby boy, Quincy Tyrone White. Quincy accepted Christ as his Lord and Savior at an early age and was baptized at Forest Lawn Missionary Baptist Church under the leadership of the late Rev. M. L. Bryant. He completed his education at Barbara Jordan High School located in Houston, Texas; and soon after, completed coursework at Modern Day Barber College.

As a hard-working man who took pride in his chosen career as a barber, Quincy was well sought after for his skills. Despite life's many twists and turns, Quincy continued to sharpen his skills while working in the community. Although Quincy never married or fathered any children, he was an amazing brother, uncle and friend.

Quincy was preceded in death by his father, Nathan Lee White; grandparents, Robert Benjamin, Sr., Essie Benjamin, Joe White, Sr. and Georgia Mae White; uncles, Robert Benjamin, Jr. and Early L. Benjamin; aunt, Dorothy Mae Knox Jackson; and his brother, Brandon White, Sr.

His loving memory will be cherished by his mother, Mary B. White; siblings, Madeline White, Joe Nathan White (Tamalisa), and Rev. Barry White, Sr. (Cynthia); uncles, Walter Benjamin (Gloria), Ricky Benjamin, and aunt, Hattie Mae Hamilton; nephews and nieces, Precious Brooks, Gernella Jackson, Ariel Tyler, Allison Ford, Jonathan White, Ja'Mya White, Barry White, Jr., Elizabeth White, Brandon White, Jr., Brooklyn White, and Blake White; as well as a host of great nieces and nephews, cousins, and extended family members and friends.
