I'm Free

Don t grieve for me, for now I m free
I m following the path God laid for me.
I took his hand when I heard him call
I turned my back and left it all.
I could not stay another day
To laugh, to love, to work or play.
Tasks undone must stay that away.
I found that peace at close of day.
If my parting has left a void
Then fill it with remembered joy.
A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss,
Ah, yes these things I too will miss.
Be not burdened with times of sorrow
I wish you the sunshine of tomorrow.
My life s been full, Iv e savored much,
Good friends, good times, a loved one s touch.
Perhaps my time seemed all to brief,
Don't lengthen it now with undue grief.
Lift up your hearts and share with me
God wanted me now:
He set me free.

LIFE STORY

David Eric Jackson was born September 9, 1959, to Carolina and Marion Jackson in Philadelphia, PA where he lived his life, David was the third of four children.

Eric was educated in the Philadelphia Public School System; he later went to JFK where he studied and became an electrician. Eric worked for himself as an electrician, he also did plumbing and roofing that he learned from his father. Eric could do just about any job you needed, including laying floors and dry wall. Eric was quiet and kept to himself but when in conversation with him he would always say something that made you think and second guess yourself. He loved watching the news to stay updated on what was happening and one of his biggest joys was talking with and educating his nephews. Eric loved sitting and watching old tv shows with his mother and they would laugh at old times, he also loved staying in shape by riding his bike almost everywhere he went.

David Eric leaves to cherish his mother, Carolina Jackson, sister, Rosa Mae Byrd, brother-in-law Dennis Byrd, Brother, Marion Jackson Jr. and brother-in -law Bernard Whoodie Brockington. He also leaves a host of nieces, nephews, aunts, uncles and friends. He was preceded in death by his father Marion Jackson and sister Carolyn Brockington.
