

I MADE IT HOME

*I just wanted to let you know that I made it home.
Everything is so pretty here,
so white, so fresh, so new.
I wish that you could close your eyes
so you could see it too.
Please try not to be sad for me,
Try to understand.
God is taking care of me ...
I'm in the shelter of His hands
Here there is no sadness,
and no sorrow, and no pain.
Here there is no crying,
and I'll never hurt again.
Here it is so peaceful,
when all the angels sing.
I really have to go for now,
I've just got to try my wings.
PS ... I'll be the first face you see when you get here!*

Remember me with laughter and smiles, for that's how I will remember U all ... but if U can only remember me with sadness and tears, don't remember me at all

Obituary

Janet Wharton, 60, of Asbury Park, NJ gained her wings on January 9, 2018. She was born on March 19, 1957 to Carol Butler and William Clark.

Janet married the love of her life, Chester Wharton, on April 7, 1979. Janet was a caregiver to her nieces and nephews as well as the community. She would never turn a child away. She was a longtime member of Christian Cathedral Ministries, Asbury Park, NJ.

Janet was predeceased by her husband, Chester Wharton from Accomac, Virginia; mother, Carol Butler; father, William Clark; son, Tyrelle Wharton; nephew, Prize Johnson; and aunt, Beverly Massie.

Janet leaves to cherish her memories to her daughter, Kyle Butler; son, Wilbur (Star) Ford; four sisters, Sharon and Torie Butler, Nicole Henderson (Eric) and Marnina Martin; three brothers, Jaszark Allah (Delores), I-Born Clark and William Clark, Jr. (Lorretta); four grandchildren, Tyrelle, Jr., Shakhyyi and Shaniayla Ford; niece/granddaughter, Latoria Butler; three aunts, Florence Moore, Karen Smerdon and Gail Bonner; three godchildren, Theresa Butler, Marquan Clark; and Aretha Morris; her best buddy, Rosemarie Clayton; four special nieces, Ny' Airah Butler, Jah'Zai Rogers, Hadia Crooms and I-Jenay Henderson; her favorite niece, Rhashawna Butler; companion, Tyshawna Evans; and a host of nieces and nephews, family and friends. In her eyes her nephews could do no wrong. She loved them dearly, they will miss her.
