A Letter from Heaven

When tomorrow starts without me,
And I'm not here to see,
If the sun should rise and find your eyes,
Filled with tears for me.
I wish so much you wouldn't cry,
The way you did today,
While thinking of the many things,
We didn't get to say.
I know how much you love me,
As much as I love you,
And each time you think of me,
I know you'll miss me too.
When tomorrow starts without me,
Don't think we're apart,
For every time you think of me
I'm right there in your heart

Acknowledgement

The Bullock family wishes to express their heartfelt appreciation to the many friends, family and love ones who shared words of comfort during our time of bereavement. God bless each of you.

To Our Dad

You held our hands when we were small,
You caught us when we fell
The hero of our childhood
And of latter years as well.

Every time we think of you,
Our hearts just fill with pride
And though we'll always miss you Dad,
We know you're by our side.

In Laughter and in sorrow,
In sunshine and in rain
We know you're watching over us
Until we meet again.

To every thing there is a season, and a time to every purpose under heaven: A time to be born, and a time to die; a time to plant, and a time to pluck up that which is planted; A time to kill, and a time to heal; a time to break down, and a time to build up; A time to weep, and a time to laugh; a time to mourn, and a time to dance; A time to cast away stones, and a time to gather stones together; A time to embrace, and a time to refrain from embracing; A time to get, and a time to lose; a time to keep, and a time to cast away; a time to rend, and a time to sew; A time to keep silence, and a time to speak; a time to love, and a time to hate; A time of war and a time of peace. —Ecclesiastes 3:1-8
