LET ME GO

*When I come to the end of the road
And the sun has set for me
I want no rites in a gloom filled room
Why cry for a soul set free?*

*Miss me a little, but not for long
And not with your head bowed low
Remember the love that once we shared
Miss me, but let me go.*

*For this is a journey we all must take
And each must go alone.
It's all part of the master plan
A step on the road to home.*

*When you are lonely and sick at heart
Go to the friends we know.
Laugh at all the things we used to do
Miss me, but let me go.*

LIFE'S REFLECTIONS

To everything there is a season, and a time to every purpose under the heaven - Ecclesiastes 3:1

"Mike" Paul Michael Thornton is celebrated and remembered as a wonderful man who demonstrated great love for his family; showed himself loyal, always willing to help extend a favor or a helping hand. He left marks on the lives of those he touched.

Mike was kind, funny, and mechanically-minded. He was the definition of "Mr. Fix-It." He would help anyone that he could; friend, family, and stranger. But when he loved you, he loved you with his whole heart; and there was nothing he wouldn't do for you.

He enjoyed fixing things, fishing, fast cars and motorcycles. He was a collector of all types of "things." He was very talented in many areas. But the times he enjoyed the most, where he was the happiest, was any time that he spent with his children and grandchildren. They were wholly and truly the light of his life.

He is now resting peacefully with those who preceded him in death: His parents, Bessie M. Thornton and Paul K. Thornton, and his sister, Paula K. Spencer.

There are many who will find joy in cherished memories of "Mike" Paul Michael Thornton. Mentioned here are his children: Kaitlyn M. Thornton and "Collins" L. Thornton; his grandchildren, who were extremely special to his heart: Aaliyah Thornton and Hazel Turner. His sisters: Tina Manor and Jessica Eldridge. Brothers: Tommy Thornton and Leroy Thornton. As well as countless nieces, nephews, friends, and even strangers.

He truly was the kindest, most loyal person on this earth, with a heart made of gold. He will be missed beyond measure.

Until we meet again, I love you, Daddy.
