Armand Joseph Lambert was born in The Pas, Saturday, June 5, 1948. He passed from us Monday, January 24, 2022, with his wife by his side at the age of 73 years.

Armand grew up in The Pas area, living at Big Bend and in The Pas with family roots in Pine Bluff. He attended school in Laurier, The Pas and Prince Albert.

Following in his older brother's footsteps, Armand earned a red seal as a journeyman plumber, pipefitter and steam fitter. He spent his early career working construction in many northern locations including Thompson, Soab Lake, The Pas and Jenpeg. In 1976 he chose to leave construction for industry and was hired as a pipefitter at the pulp and paper mill in The Pas, where he remained until he retired in 2003. Armand made many strong friendships with his coworkers who respected and valued him for his integrity, honesty and loyalty.

Armand was a loving husband, father, grandfather and loyal friend. He married Susan Frances Munro in Flin Flon, April 12, 1971 and they were blessed with the birth of a daughter, Charleen Marie, February 25, 1972; and the adoption of son Randall Joseph in May 1974 who left to join his biological mother in 1988.

Armand cherished his family and thought often of his sisters. He was very proud of his daughter Charleen, and was overjoyed to welcome his son-in-law Curtis Kerr to the family. He often stated that they shared a special friendship and exceptional bond. The greatest highlights in his life were the births of his two grandchildren, Owen and Arya, who he loved with his whole heart.

An avid hunter, fisher and outdoorsman, Armand spent many hours planning and preparing for hunting and fishing trips with his friends and many more hours sitting with them recounting the adventures. Armand was very active in Kinsmen and was awarded life membership. He was instrumental in the continued operation of the sled dog races at Trappers' Festival for over 45 years. He respected and was aware of the commitment mushers have, to the care and training of their dogs. He made many close friends in the mushing community all across North America, who appreciated his dedication and looked forward to seeing him annually.

Friends say Armand Lambert was a very good man who knew right from wrong and would tell you if you were crossing the line. He was a true and loyal friend who always put others before himself. Armand was a quiet man with a great sense of humour, a gentleman who was respected by all who knew him.

Armand was predeceased by his parents Edwin Lambert and Marie Lambert-Kerkoerle; his stepbrother Emile; brother Wally; father and mother-in-law Charles and Eileen Munro; brothers-in-law Dave Chester and Bill Munro.

Armand will be sorely missed and his memory cherished by loving wife Sue; daughter Charleen; son-in-law Curtis Kerr; grandchildren Owen and Arya; sisters Doreen Hache, Rose (Wayne) Moore, Flo Chester; stepfather John Kerkoerle; brother-in-law Bert (Leila) Munro; sisters-in-law Charleen (Alfred) McDonald, Val Munro, Penni (Bruce) Gibson; many nieces, nephews, great nieces, great nephews, Godsons Wally Lambert Jr., Brent Colgan and Scott Gibson; special niece Tara Manych; and many special friends, including Rick Colgan and Al Lagimodiere.

In lieu of flowers, the family would appreciate a donation in Armand's memory to The Pas Health Complex Foundation Inc., Box 541, The Pas, Manitoba R9A 1K6, or e-transfer to tphcfoundation2020@gmail.com
