Maria Giaimo Taylor

June 4, 1958 - October 15, 2026

Maria Giaimo Taylor, 68, passed away on October 15, 2026. A beloved wife, daughter, sister, and aunt, Maria embraced life with a joy surpassed only by her love for her family.

She was preceded in death by her beloved husband, Roy Lee Taylor, and her parents, Carolyn Oglesby Giaimo and Joseph Giaimo.

Left to cherish her memory are her sister, Connie Giaimo Shelton Killgore, and her husband, Randy; her nephew, Bill Shelton, and great-niece, Eve Blaire Shelton; her niece, Sophia Shelton Johnson, and her husband, Christopher; and her great-nieces, Harper Grace and Olivia Paige.

Maria also leaves behind a large, loving extended family and countless dear friends whom she considered family. These cherished bonds were an enduring source of happiness and reflected the love she so freely shared.

Her family offers heartfelt gratitude to her loving caregiver, Angie, affectionately known as “Saint Angie,” whose kindness, compassion, and devoted care brought comfort to Maria and those who loved her.

In lieu of flowers, the family requests that memorial donations be made to St. Jude Children’s Research Hospital in Maria’s memory.

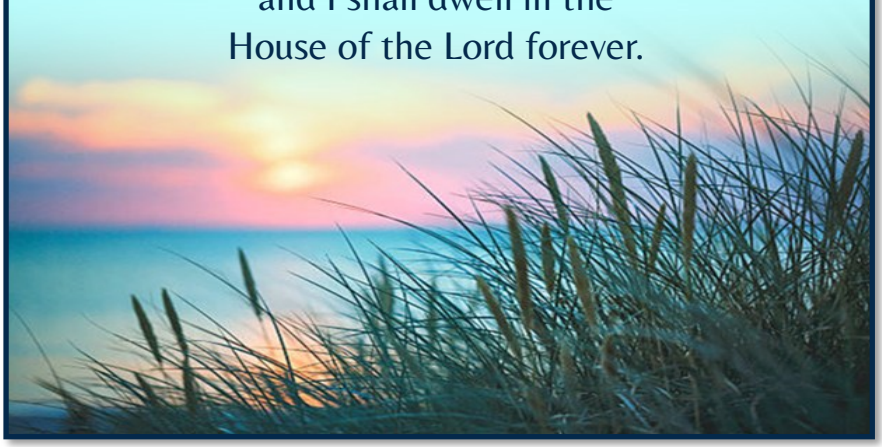

Family was at the heart of Maria’s life, and her absence leaves a void words cannot fill. May those who loved her find comfort in their shared memories and in the lasting gift of her love. She will be deeply missed and forever cherished.

Psalm 23

The Lord is my shepherd; I shall not want.
He maketh me to lie down in green pastures:
He leadeth me beside the still waters.
He restoreth my soul:
He leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for His name's sake.
Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil:
for Thou art with me;
Thy rod and Thy staff they comfort me.
Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies:
Thou anointest my head with oil;
my cup runneth over.
Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life:
and I shall dwell in the House of the Lord forever.
