Obituary

Jonathan Helm, 60, of Mansfield, passed away on Wednesday, December 17, 2025. Mr. Helm was born on January 24, 1965, to the late John L. Helm and Barbara (Jones) Helm in Mansfield, Ohio.

Jonathan grew up surrounded by family and community who remember him for his big heart, quick laugh, and generous spirit. He loved to fish, dance, and have friends and family gatherings. Everyone loved to see him upon arrival. Jonathan was the life of the party—the person who could light up the room the moment he walked in. His smile was contagious, and he had a genuine gift for making everyone feel noticed and welcome, whether through a well-timed joke, a listening ear, or a spontaneous dance. Jonathan made ordinary moments memorable and left those around him laughing and comforted.

For the past six years, Jonathan worked at Cerdington Zytka, where his colleagues admired his dedication, work ethic, and ability to bring people together. He took pride in his work and in the relationships he built there.

He leaves to cherish his memory his daughter, Ariel Williams; significant other, Veronica Davis; sister, Crystal Helm; nephew, Joseph Reed; grandchildren; grandnephew and aunts; uncles; cousins; numerous lifetime brothers; and his Delaware, Ohio family.
