I'M FREE

*Don't grieve for me, for now I'm free
I'm following the path God has laid you see.
I took His hand when I heard him call
I turned my back and left it all.
I could not stay another day
To laugh, to love, to work, to play.
Tasks left undone must stay that way
I found that peace at the close of day.
If my parting has left a void
Then fill it with remembered joy.
A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss
Oh yes, these things I too will miss.
Be not burdened with times of sorrow
I wish you the sunshine of tomorrow.
My life's been full, I savored much
Good friends, good times, a loved one's touch.
Perhaps my time seemed all too brief
Don't lengthen it now with undue grief.
Lift up your hearts and peace to thee
God wanted me now; He set me free.*

Life Profile

Mr. Charles Earl “Big Man” Lyles was born on June 6, 1952, to the late Flossie Feaster and the late Charles Edward Lyles, in Spartanburg, SC.

He was educated in the Spartanburg County school system and was a former employee of Draper Corporation. Charles enjoyed walking; he enjoyed it so much that he walked to most of the places he went. His affection for NFL teams was divided between the Pittsburgh Steelers and the Carolina Panthers. He loved joking around and making others laugh and would share whatever he had with whomever he could.

Those left to cherish his memories include three sisters, Jessie Lyles of Spartanburg, SC, Doris Harris of Conyers, GA and Lorinda Brown of Spartanburg, SC; one brother, John Bogan of Spartanburg, SC; three aunts, Mary Feaster of Baltimore, MD, Annie Feaster and Johnnie (Gary) Rosenburg both of Spartanburg, SC; one uncle, Willie James (Linda) Stevenson of Shelton, SC; and a host of nieces, nephews, other relatives and dear friends.

On November 28, 2022, Mr. Charles Earl “Big Man” Lyles entered eternal rest.
