LIFE REFLECTIONS

Markeith Tremel "Debo" Young

“A TIME TO BE BORN”

Markeith Young was born to Rosalyn Winters and to the late Jeffrey Young of Yazoo City, MS.

“A TIME TO BUILD”

Markeith accepted Christ as his Lord and Savior at an early age. He often attended Children’s Church at Word of Faith in Yazoo City, MS. Markeith spent his toddler and adolescent years in Euless, Texas, where he attended Euless Independent School District. He later, returned to Yazoo City, MS. Markeith attended Yazoo City Municipal School District, where he obtained his high school diploma in May of 2020.

“A PILLAR OF ENCOURAGEMENT”

Markeith was very kind, generous, and loving. He had a smile that would light up the room. Markeith enjoyed spending time with his family as well as playing video games with friends. He also had a love for animals like no other. Markeith would often take interest in stray animals, nurturing them back to life.

“A TIME TO LOVE”

Markeith leaves to cherish his mother Rosalyn Winters who he loved deeply. He also shared an unbreakable bond with his brothers Marques and Martrell. Markeith loved and cherished his grandmother, as he would say his “MIMI”, THE GREAT, Martha Winters who proceeded him in death.

“A TIME OF PEACE”

Markeith is survived his beloved mother, Rosalyn Winters; three brothers, Marques Winters, Martrell Young, Yazoo City, MS; Jeffrey Genes, Jackson, MS; Grandfather Nathaniel Redmond, Chicago, IL; one sister Preshana Taylor , two uncles, Tony Winters (Melinda), Madison, MS; Cory Redmond, Yazoo City, MS; one nephew Ricky Anthony, III and a host of aunts, uncles, cousins and friends.
