A Mother's Love Never Dies

Though your hands are still and quiet,
And your voice we'll hear no more,
The love you gave your family
Will live forevermore.
The years you shared among us
Were a gift we'll always treasure,
Held in memories close to our hearts,
A love that lasts forever.
You taught us through your kindness,
You comforted us through your care,
And even now, though you are gone,
Your love surrounds us everywhere.
So rest now in God's gentle arms,
Where pain and sorrow cease.
May you find eternal sunshine
And everlasting peace.
Though we must say goodbye today,
Our love will never end.
You will remain within our hearts,
Our mother, guide, and friend.
Until the day we meet again,
When heaven calls us home,
You'll never be forgotten,
And you'll never be alone.
Forever loved, forever missed,
A mother's love never dies.
