

OBITUARY

Sandy Dingler, born on November 2, 1960, in Fort Worth, Texas, passed away peacefully on May 15, 2025. Sandy's life was marked by her nurturing spirit and her unwavering dedication to family and community. She spent an impressive 25 years with the fire department in Keene, Texas, where she made countless contributions before her retirement. Her colleagues and friends will remember her as the embodiment of a "Mama Bear," always ready to support and care for those around her.

Sandy was preceded in death by her beloved husband of forty years Terry Dingler; her parents, Frank Record, Sr. and Della Record; and her brother, Frank Record, Jr.

Survivors include her siblings, Mike Record of Godley, Texas, and Debbie and Wayne Potter from Joshua, Texas; nieces and nephews, Ron Potter and wife Lauren, Terry Potter, Cody Dingler and wife Tawnya, Ashley Manchester and husband William, Jeremy and Renee Edmondson, and Jason Edmondson, and numerous great nieces and nephews. Each of them held a special place in her heart, and she took great joy in their lives and accomplishments.

Sandy will be remembered not just for her dedication and service, but also for the love she generously shared. Her legacy will live on in the hearts of those who had the privilege of knowing her.

Psalms 23

The Lord is my shepherd; I shall not want. He maketh me to lie down in green pastures; He leadeth me beside the still waters. He restoreth my soul; He guideth me in straight paths for His name's sake. Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil, for Thou art with me; Thy rod and Thy staff, they comfort me. Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies; Thou hast anointed my head with oil; my cup runneth over. Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life; And I shall dwell in the house of the Lord forever.
