

23rd Psalm

The Lord is my Shepherd; I shall not want.
He maketh me to lie down in green pastures,
He leadeth me beside the still waters.

He restoreth my soul.

He leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for His name's sake.

Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death,
I will fear no evil; for thou art with me;
Thy rod and thy staff they comfort me.

Thou preparest a table before me
in the presence of mine enemies;
Thou anointest my head with oil;
my cup runneth over.

Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life;

And I will dwell in the house of the LORD forever.

Obituary

Robert Kennedy Williams was the first-born child to the union of Vivian Joyce and Robert Ezell Williams on August 14, 1961. Known to many of his family and friends as "Robbie Rob" AKA "Flea". Robbie accepted Christ at a young age and was baptized at God's Bible School.

Robbie was known for his immaculate style, dress, and for wearing his trademark caps and sun glasses. He loved to dance and was never one to back down from a great debate.

On September 29, 2025, Robbie departed his Earthly body to gain his wings. Robbie was preceded in death by his parents Vivian Joyce and Robert Ezell Williams, grandparents Della and Major Johnson, and Viola Williams.

Robert leaves to cherish his memory three sisters, Cheryl Williams, Tayna Williams-Dunham (Derrick) and Felicia Smith (Leroy), Favorite aunt Sandra Gill (Don L), Louise and Patricia Williams, uncles Willie Williams, Thaddeus Williams (Judy) and Wesley Williams (Sylvia), nephews Brandon and Kordell, nieces Taneshia, Brittany, Fatimah, and a host of great nieces, cousins, family and friends.
