LIFE'S REFLECTIONS

Kisha Oliphant Jenkins

Psalms 16:11 NKJV - You will show me the path of Life,

In your presence is fullness of Joy; At your right hand are pleasures forever more.

Life of Joy, Kisha Oliphant-Jenkins was born March 28, 1975, to Elonzo and Johnnie Oliphant, the youngest of five children. Kisha was loved by many who came to know her and grew fond of her presence. She held close to the morals and values her parents instilled to be genuine, compassionate, caring and impactful through character.

II Corinthians 5:17 KJV - Therefore if any man be in Christ, He is a new creature, old things are passed away; behold all things are become new.

In a family grounded by faith, Kisha established early on the Love of Christ and soon accepted Christ as her personal Savior. Kisha joined Mt. Horeb M. B. Church under the leadership of Rev. J. E. Birts, where she had already begun to share her gift of worship in song, singing in the choir. She continued to sing as a choir member from her youth to adulthood. Kisha also served as a member of the Board of Trustees.

I Corinthians 15:58 NIV - Therefore my beloved brothers be steadfast immovable always abounding in the work of the Lord, knowing that in the Lord your labor is not in vain.

Kisha attended Humphreys County Schools and graduated with honors, along with the Class of 1993. She was a member of the National Beta Club, Student Council Association, and the School Chorus among other organizations. Kisha attended Mississippi Valley State University where she continued her love and pursuit of academics. Kisha majored in Elementary Education with a desire to teach and nurture children to reach their full potential.

Ephesians 6:7 NIV - Serve wholeheartedly as if you were serving the Lord, not people.

Kisha carried a passion to serve therefore becoming a member of Sigma Gamma Rho Sorority, Inc. Kappa Chi Chapter at MVSU in the Spring of 1998. In her final year, just short of a semester shy of graduating Kisha battled a brief illness, causing temporary blindness, which prevented her from obtaining her degree. Through resilience, determination and healing, Kisha regained her sight and was able to work. She began working with Friends of Children of MS, Inc. thus fulfilling her desire of working with children. Kisha worked diligently until her health failed yet again. Though faced with health challenges, Kisha lived life to the fullest, in doing so by still caring for children in her free time, traveling on family vacations, attending church functions and enjoying her family and all that she loved.

I Corinthians 13:13 NIV And now these greatest of these three remain Faith, Hope, and Love but the greatest of these is Love.

Kisha married her lovemate, Herbert Jenkins April 26, 2008; honoring her marriage, she was a devoted and faithful wife.

Philippians 1:21 NIV - For to me, to live is Christ and to die is gain. No more worries, pain or sickness.

Kisha departed this life in exchange for eternal life, March 14, 2026, at Baptist Memorial Hospital, Jackson, MS. She will forever live in our hearts and be remembered for her beautiful smile and humble spirit. She was preceded in death by her loving mother, Johnnie Oliphant, and special aunt, Dorothy McQuarter.

Kisha leaves to cherish her memory, her husband, Herbert Jenkins; her father, Elonzo Oliphant; sisters: Belita Bass (Leroy) of Louise, MS; Lora Evans (Larry) of Greenwood, MS, and Stephanie Redmond (Recell) of Yazoo City, MS; one brother, Anthony Oliphant (Sharon) of Madison, MS; two brothers-in-law: Charles Jenkins (Bobby Ann) and Dennis Jenkins (Georgia) both of Louise, MS; four sisters-in-law: Rosie Gray of Isola, MS, Annie Deere of Belzoni, MS, Georgia Jenkins and Bertha Merritt (Floyd), both of Louise, MS; four uncles: George (Jackie) Rance of Buffalo, NY, Elmo Oliphant of Byram, MS, James Oliphant (Amanda) of Titusville, FL, and Pinkney Oliphant of Toledo, OH; one aunt, Lillian Ransey (Ollie) of Toledo, OH; special friends: Larry and Yolanda Brown of Belzoni, MS.

Kisha will truly be missed by her nieces, nephews, great nieces and great nephews, cousins, other family, friends, classmates and Sorors.

SCOTT MEMORIAL FUNERAL DIRECTORS IN CHARGE

Recessional Clergy, Family and Friends

Kisha, my love... my heart is heavy, and words don't seem big enough to carry what I feel. You weren't just my wife - you were my best friend, my peace, my strength, and my answered prayer.

You stood by me, loved me through everything, and made our house a home filled with warmth, laughter, and real love. I thank God for every moment we shared, every smile, every embrace. You gave me a love that will never fade.

It hurts that I can't hold you, hear your voice, or see your smile, but I find comfort knowing your spirit still surrounds me. You may be gone from my sight, but you will never be gone from my heart.

I promise to carry you with me in everything I do. Your love will continue to guide me, and your memory will forever live on in me.

Love Your Husband, Herbert

Kisha, our hearts are still trying to understand a world without you in it. You weren't just our sister - you were a light in this family, a voice of strength, and a love that held us together in ways words can't fully explain. Dad carries your memory with pride and deep love, and we, your siblings, will forever cherish the laughter, the talks, the moments, and even the lessons you left with us. You were more than family - you were a piece of our soul. Though you're no longer here with us, your spirit lives on in everything we do. We will continue to stand strong, love harder, and lean on God - just like you would want us to. Rest well, our beautiful sister. Give Mom a kiss for us. Until we meet again, we will carry you in our hearts every single day. Forever loved. Forever missed. Forever Kisha. ❤️

Love Your Dad and Siblings,
Dad (Elonzo), Belita, Lora, Anthony, Stephanie
