Acknowledgements

The family of Vaughn McMillan wishes to thank you for your thoughts, prayers, condolences, and all acts of kindness. God's love and your compassion have brought us much appreciation and comfort. May God bless and keep you.

A Special Thanks to Mark Michaelson.

A friend is a gift of God. He is a gift of understanding. For in this world everyone needs a friend for the little secret heartaches that lay heavy on our mind. For somehow, in a generous heart of a loving & faithful friend; God's charity, wisdom, kindness and affection prevails. So when we need some sympathy, a friendly touch, an ear that listens, and someone who speaks sympathetic and understanding words, a true and trusted friend we find. For in those moments of silence, there is a union of thoughts and kindred feelings. Therefore God gives TRUE FRIENDS.

Prayer

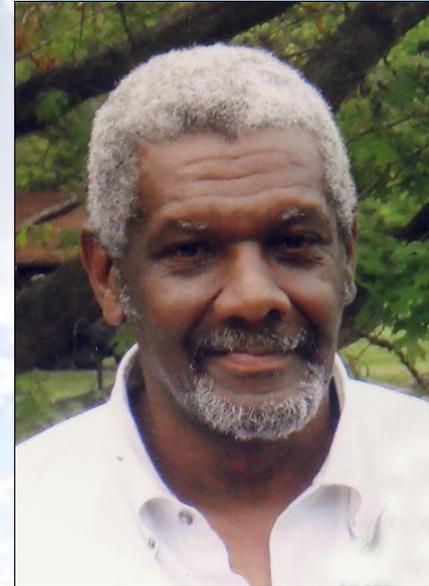

LORD, You have granted us the gift of time and may we always be mindful of how priceless it truly is. Let us enjoy our times together...and put all harsh words aside. Let us not mourn our times apart... but let memories brighten our days. Let us stop reliving the past... and quit fretting about the future. Rather, let us be aware of the treasure of each new day-capturing the beauty and love You have poured into each precious moment.

OBITUARY

Vaughn McMillan, age 61, died Thursday, January 18, 2018 after a short illness at a hospice facility in Maderia, Ohio.

He was born in Cincinnati, Ohio on September 30, 1956; the third of five children to Ruth and Warner McMillan. He grew up in Corryville and graduated from Hughes High School. After high school, Vaughn took college classes and training at a technical school in Dayton, Ohio prior to joining the US Army.

Following his time in the military, Vaughn was employed as a laborer and worked many different jobs. He was always willing to give a helping hand whenever he was able.

Vaughn accepted Jesus Christ as his Savior at an early age at the New Sardis Primitive Baptist Church where his grandfather was the pastor. While at New Sardis, he was a member of the male chorus.

Vaughn lived in Cincinnati and Milford most of his life. He loved traveling and adventuring to new sights. He traveled on numerous family trips such as: Niagara Falls, Smokey Mountains, Nashville, Chicago, Atlanta, Orlando, New York City, etc.

Preceding him in death was his father, Warner C. McMillan and a host of other dear family members and loved ones.

Vaughn's survivors include his mother, Ruth McMillan of Milford, Ohio; his sister: Shirley (Harvey) Faulkner of Richmond, Indiana; three brothers: Warren (Gail) of Columbus, Ohio, James (Patricia) of Cincinnati, Ohio and Anthony (Alesia) of Columbus, Ohio; uncles: Henry (Melinda) Brown of Weston, Massachusetts, Rev. Floyd Brown, Jimmie Brown and Charles Marshall (Virginia) McMillan, all of Cincinnati, Ohio; aunts: Jessie and Doris McMillan both of Milford, Ohio; and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins and a good friend, Mark Michaelson of Milford, Ohio.

"We will miss you, Vaughn."
