Tribute to Fresh

Today, we stand here with heavy hearts to honor not only our oldest brother, but a man who meant so much to all of us. As younger brothers, we spent our lives looking up to you. Before we understood the world, we understood you — your strength, your guidance, your laughter, and the way you always tried to protect us, even during your own difficult moments. You are more than a brother. You were a leader in our family, someone whose presence made us feel safer and stronger. You taught us lessons without even trying — through the way you carried yourself, the way you loved, and the way you showed up for the people you cared about. There are no words big enough for this loss. Losing our oldest brother feels like losing part of the foundation beneath our feet. The memories we shared, the conversations, the laughter, and even the ordinary moments now mean more than we can explain. We will miss your voice. We will miss your smile. We will miss knowing you were only a phone call away. But more than anything, we will miss simply having you here with us. Even though our hearts are broken, we are grateful for the gift of having you as our brother. Your love, your impact, and the memories you gave us will live on in all three of us forever. Rest peacefully, big brother. Thank you for watching over us, loving us, and helping shape the men we became. We love you deeply, and we will carry you with us always.

Love always Boss, Rock, and Mac
