

There's No Tomorrow

By: Karroll Higgins

*If I could live but just a year
Knowing full well the end is near
Would I do what I'm doing today?
Would I be content just to "play"?*

*It would take some thought at first
To find the things, wherein I thirst
To seek the joy of selfish pleasure
Or turn to God, and share His treasure!*

*For a friend—would I risk my life?
Help mend a heart—broken in strife?
Give, without thought of what I receive?
Accept God's "word" as what I believe?*

*Lord, I was blind and now I see,
Your lighted path—so appeals to me!
Your gift of love—a saving Son
Is a promise of hope—for everyone!*

*Let me live as if— "There's no tomorrow!"
Free of all personal sin and sorrow
Free to hope—to pray—to love
Free to court—the things above!*
