

His Legacy

DONALD LAMPKIN

“I have fought a good fight, I have finished my course, I have kept the faith.” – 2 Timothy 4:7 (KJV)

Mr. Donald Lampkin was born on March 13, 1943, in Memphis, Tennessee, to Mr Robert and Mrs. Sarah Lampkin. He was raised in Cambria Heights and St. Albans, New York, where his love for knowledge and community began early in life. Donald proudly served his country as a member of the United States Navy, traveling the world and developing a lifelong sense of discipline and purpose.

He was married to his devoted wife, Mrs. Ida Mae Lampkin, for fifty nine years. Together, they raised three loving children: Steven, Michelle, Patricia (Patty). Donald worked tirelessly to provide for his family, always leading with strength, integrity, and faith.

Donald served as a respected NYPD Police Officer in New York City for twenty four years until his retirement. Afterward, he continued to pursue his passion for learning and helping others, graduating with honors from Liberty University with a Master’s Degree in Arts. He went on to become a licensed mental health counselor in South Carolina, Georgia and New York, where he faithfully served individuals and families for eleven years until he finally retired. He was a man of deep faith who loved the Lord. Donald’s legacy of service, compassion, and faith continues to shine through his family and all who had the privilege of knowing him.

Donald is survived by his loving wife, Mrs. Ida Mae Lampkin; children , Michelle (Rodney), Patricia (Randy), and Steven (Leslie); nine grandchildren, great-grandchildren, along with a host of family and friends who will cherish his memory forever.

“I thank my God every time I remember you.” – Philippians 1:3 Donald Lampkin lived a life full of honor, faith, and love – a legacy that will live on through all who knew him and through the family who will love him forever in their hearts.

Family & Friends

You never said I'm leaving
You never said goodbye
You were gone before I knew it,
And only God knew why.
A million times I needed you,
A million times I cried
If love alone could have saved you,
You never would have died
In life I loved you dearly
In death I love you still
In my heart you hold a place,
That no one will ever fill
It broke my heart to lose you,
But you didn't go alone
For part of me went with you,
The day God took you home.
