

As I Sit In Heaven

As I sit in Heaven
And watch you everyday,
I try to let you know with signs
I never went away.
I hear you when you're laughing,
And watch you as you sleep.
I even place my arms around you
To calm you as you weep.
I see you wish the days away,
Begging to have me home.
So I try to send you signs
So you know you are not alone.
Don't feel guilty that you have life
That was denied to me.
Heaven is truly beautiful,
Just you wait and see.
So live your life, laugh again,
Enjoy yourself, be free!
Then I know with every breath you take
You'll be taking one for me.

23rd Psalm

The Lord is my Shepherd; I shall not want.
He maketh me to lie down in green pastures,
He leadeth me beside the still waters.
He restoreth my soul.
He leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for His name's sake.
Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death,
I will fear no evil; for thou art with me;
Thy rod and thy staff they comfort me.
Thou preparest a table before me
in the presence of mine enemies;
Thou anointest my head with oil;
my cup runneth over.
Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life;
And I will dwell in the house of the LORD forever.

Obituary

Khalil Omari Scott was born May 3, 1999, in Cincinnati Ohio. He was the youngest son born to Dan L. Scott & Shannon L. Elliott. Khalil attended North College Hill schools from elementary through high school, where he wrestled and played varsity football. Khalil was well known for being a force to be reckoned with on the field. Khalil graduated in 2017 where he received his diploma, as well as a Trade Certificate in Construction Technology from Diamond Oaks. Khalil went on to pursue his education at Kable Academy, where he received a certificate in computer technology.

As a child Khalil loved to visit his family in Alabama. He always looked forward to spending the summer hanging out with his cousins riding four wheelers and having cap sessions, going out to eat or just having a home cooked meal with family. Khalil was family oriented, loyal and protective. He was what we would call a "Gentle Giant" very tough on the outside yet soft on the inside, with a heart full of love. Khalil was also most definitely a kid magnet, rather in an upbeat or down mood. Khalil had a soft spot for kids, they naturally gravitated to him, and he loved them like no other. Khalil took pride in being a father. He loved spending time with his son. He also enjoyed playing video games, cards and watching sports. Especially his favorite football team, everybody knew how much Khalil loved his BAMA, ROLL TIDE!!

Khalil was very mechanically inclined; whether it was putting things together or working on cars, he loved to use his hands. Khalil was also a voice of reason and was always there to lend a helping hand. Before Khalil's passing, he had hopes of starting a mental awareness group for men. He was the epitome of selflessness. Even throughout his struggles he still yearned to help another.

Khalil Leaves to cherish his memory and legacy his loving Parents Dan Scott & Shannon Elliott; Grandparent: Annie Scott; Siblings: Demarius Dunklin, Camron Scott, Nakheila Satterfield, William Dunklin, Robert Miller IV; Only Son: Kayleon Scott and Nehshelle Wright (Mother). He was preceded in death by his grandparents Robert Scott, William & Virginia Parker. Also, a host of family & friends.

The passing of Khalil has put a lot into perspective for our family, and we cannot express enough how important it is to always take care of your mental health.
