What makes a woman beautiful...

The Obituary

Brenda Kyle Bookman was born April 24, 1944 in Coatesville, Pennsylvania. She was the daughter of the late Leslie C. Kyle & Germaine Arnetta Hodges Kyle. She was the wife of Nathan R. Bookman, Sr. with whom she shared 48 years of marriage.

A life long resident of Coatesville, Brenda attended the Coatesville area public schools including the historical James Adams School and graduated from S. Horace Scott Senior High School in 1963.

After high school she worked at Marionette Mills. She attended Apex Beauty School, receiving a cosmetology license along side her husband. She worked as a nurse's aide at the Coatesville VA Hospital, as a clerk at the former Coatesville Hospital and in the medical records department at the Brandywine Hospital until she retired in 2009.

She was a former member of the young married couples club and served on the usher board at the Tabernacle Baptist Church for several years. Brenda was a talented seamstress, who enjoyed interior decorating, shopping and gardening.

*A mother's prayers,
Her father's love*

*Her family & friends
and the closeness thereof*

She had a gift for making things look magazine perfect. Most of all she enjoyed cooking. It was like Thanksgiving everyday. Some of her specialties included delicious desserts: strawberry shortcake, chocolate on chocolate cake, and deep dish apple pie. She would make sweet potato fluff on demand. Whenever there were family cookouts or special dinners, even if she did not attend, Brenda would send a delightful dish to represent her presence.

Brenda passed away March 3, 2015. She was preceded in death by one brother, Gene Kyle.

She is survived by her husband Nathan "Nate" R. Bookman, Sr.; two sons, Nathan R. Bookman, Jr. and Leslie Bookman; step-daughter, Monica Brandon-Huggins and her husband Kenny; one brother, Allen R. Kyle; one sister, Janice Blockson of Harrisburg; 6 grandchildren: Porshyia, Kenshayia, Karmoni, Les, Jr., Talon and Nayda; three god-children Byron Pooler, Missy Pooler, Brian Harvey; special life-long friend Susanne Pooler and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins and friends.

*It's God, her true beauty
