85 of Pocatello, Idaho

I think the world is glorious and lovely as can be.
The birds and the bees and the blossom bring sweet messages to me.
I sing and sing and sing and sing
A song of joy and love,
I sing and sing and sing and sing
My Thanks to God above
I think the world is glorious and lovely
as can be.
For I have teachers kind and true and parents who love me
I sing and sing and sing and sing
A song of joy and love,
I sing and sing and sing and sing My Thanks to God above
