

Prelude to the Service

"Song of the Soul" by Cris Williamson (Patricia Bussert)
Track 5 on The Changer and the Changed, 1975

Please join in singing the chorus

And we'll sing this song, why don't you sing along?
And we can sing for a long, long time
Why don't you sing this song?
Why don't you sing along?
And we can sing for a long, long time.

Reflection:

The St. Colman Experience - Eileen Kelly

"Gabriel's Oboe" by Ennio Morricone: theme from The Mission
(Patricia Bussert)

Reflection:

Commission on Catholic Community Action (CCCA) - Len Calabrese

There will be a short pause before the Mass begins

Mass Theme: as followers of Christ, we must prioritize making our minds and hearts and spirits, our mission and ministry, one with that of Christ who acts in us and through us as we receive the grace to be one with Him all through our lives.

Opening Song: "Lead Me Lord" by John D. Becker,
Breaking Bread, #739: Song Leader (Terry Swift - Cantor)

Please join in singing the chorus

Lead me, Lord, lead me, Lord,
by the light of truth
to seek and to find the narrow way.
Be my way; be my truth;
be my life, my Lord,
and lead me, Lord, today

First Reading: Micah 6:8 (Sr. Mary Beth Gray)

You have been told, O mortal, what is good,
and what the Lord requires of you:
Only to do justice and to love goodness,
and to walk humbly with your God.

Psalm 23: Breaking Bread, #759

(Patricia Bussert; Flute: Erica Tkachyk)

Antiphon: My shepherd is the Lord, nothing indeed shall I want.

Philippians 2: 5-11 (Jim Begin)

Have among yourselves the same attitude that is also yours in Christ Jesus, Who, though he was in the form of God, did not regard equality with God something to be grasped. Rather, he emptied himself, taking the form of a slave, coming in human likeness; and found human in appearance, he humbled himself, becoming obedient to death, even death on a cross. Because of this, God greatly exalted him and bestowed on him the name that is above every name, that at the name of Jesus every knee should bend, of those in heaven and on earth and under the earth, and every tongue confess that Jesus Christ is Lord, to the glory of God the Father.

Alleluia: Raise the Gospel by Bernadette Farrell

Chorus: Alleluia! Alleluia! Raise the Gospel over the Earth!
Alleluia! Alleluia! Peace and justice bringing to birth!

Blessed, those who work for justice, Blessed, those who answer the call.
Blessed, those who dare to dream of lasting peace for all!

Gospel: Mark 8:27-35

Now Jesus and his disciples set out for the villages around Caesarea Philippi. Along the way he asked his disciples, "Who do people say that I am?" They said in reply, "John the Baptist, others Elijah, still others one of the prophets." And he asked them, "But who do you say that I am?" Peter said to him in reply, "You are the Messiah." Then he warned them not to tell anyone about him. He began to teach them that the Son of Man must suffer greatly and be rejected by the elders, the chief priests, and the scribes, and be killed, and rise after three days. He spoke this openly. Then Peter took him aside and began to rebuke him. At this he turned around and, looking at his disciples, rebuked Peter and said, "Get behind me, Satan. You are thinking not as God does, but as human beings do."

He summoned the crowd with his disciples and said to them, "Whoever wishes to come after me must deny himself, take up his cross, and follow me. For whoever wishes to save his life will lose it, but whoever loses his life for my sake and that of the gospel will save it.
