LIFE'S REFLECTIONS

Oscar Hubbard was born to Beatrice and Cuby Hubbard on November 16, 1951, in Yazoo County, MS. At an early age in life Oscar was baptized and joined the Big Mt. Zion Baptist Church in Louise, MS under Pastor G. H. Hankins.

Oscar was educated at Peter's Simmons School on Carter Road and at Campville School in Holly Bluff. As Oscar was growing up, he always wanted to be like his older brothers, so he started working on Erickson Farms on Wolf Late at a young age. After many years of working at Erickson Farms, Oscar and Willie decided to go to truck driving school. Oscar attended KLM Truck Driving School in Jackson right along with his big brother Willie, after graduation, he started to work for JB Hunt Company and he worked for Scott Penn Company out of Canton, MS. He worked for SRC CO in Prentiss, and finally retired due to health issues.

Oscar recommitted his life to the Lord under the teaching of his sister Ozie in the word of the Lord. Around the year of 2008 Oscar joined the Pilgrim Rest Church in Yazoo under Pastor Tony Brown. He was dedicated and faithful, he soon was promoted to Deacon and later Chairman of the Deacon Board. God blessed him with wisdom, knowledge, and understanding. The church was highly blessed. HE brought many improvements to the Deacon's board. He was a great Sunday School Teacher. He loved his Pastor Greg Taylor and the Pilgrim Rest Church Family.

After many years of caring for his first wife Carrie Hubbard, while he was battling sickness also, Carrie went on to be with the Lord. God knew Oscar needed help. Ms. Jannie Clark was his nurse and soon became his wife. She cared for him unto death. Oscar went to be with Lord on Saturday, 13 2024. Oh, how we will miss him.

Oscar loved his family, He leaves to cherish his precious memories, his beautiful wife, Mrs. Jannie Clark Hubbard, two children he helped raise Dorothy (Charles) Williams, Seattle Washington, Henry Henderson, Yazoo City and 7 beautiful children that came with his marriage to Jannie. Wendy and Tildon Clark-Alabama, Reginald Clark, Nicole (Rev. Greg) Taylor all from Yazoo City. Marcus Clark (Jackie) Wallis, MS, with many grands and great grands. Oscar leaves a rich legacy of love behind, One Brother, Melvin (Bobbie) Hubbard, One Sister Evangelist Ozie (Pastor Larry) Chesser. Oscar was an Uncle and Daddy to all his precious nieces and nephews: Tonya Hubbard (Lamar) Battee, Maximus Wright, Toni Wright (Marcus) Young, Willie Terrell (Kenya) Hubbard, Ricky Harris, Linda Harris, Jennifer (John) Lake, Anthony (Diane) Lot, Nordek Langston, Celeta Hubbard, Veronica (Mel) Starling, Ernest Proctor, Tyann Hubbard, Earnestine (Freddy) Harris, Lillie Dixon, Tamela Hubbard, Robert Proctor, Tamarion Hubbard, Floyd Proctor, Johnny Edward Proctor, Annette Pleasant, Larry Hubbard, Robert McDonald, Jimmy Hubbard, Sugar (his dog) and many, many great nieces, cousins, and friends.

Those that preceded Oscar in death, his first wife Carrie Hubbard, his parents Beatrice and Cuby Hubbard, 7 siblings, Johnny, Milverta, Alberta, Grady, Charlie, Willie, and Corine.
