

The Twenty-Third Psalm

*The Lord is my shepherd; I shall not want.
He maketh me to lie down in green pastures;
He leadeth me beside the still waters;
He restoreth my soul.
He leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for His name's sake...
Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death,
I will fear no evil; for Thou art with me;
Thy rod and Thy staff they comfort me.
Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies;
Thou anointest my head with oil;
my cup runneth over...
surely goodness and mercy shall follow me
all the days of my life and I will dwell in the House of the Lord forever.....*

Joyce was born on February 14, 1951, in Bryan, Texas to Doc Sr and Cecil Henderson. Prior to marriage, Joyce asked Monsignor Joseph Tash, a longtime friend of Joyce, if he would marry her. Knowing what she actually meant, He jokingly told her that it would be impossible for him to do so because he was a priest of the Catholic Church, something they both laughed about for years following. On September 9, 1989, she married Gordon Reid on her mother's front porch, which was presided by Monsignor Tash. They remained great friends, often making day trips to Oklahoma where they would hit the slot machines. Joyce loved playing slot machines.

She was an incredible cook and would prepare meals that everyone enjoyed. Her compassionate and caring nature was shown through not just her cooking ability but her giving spirit. Joyce enjoyed watching TV shows, especially westerns, and listening to soul music. She was a simple woman, but that didn't mean she wouldn't tell you exactly what was on her mind.

Joyce is preceded in death by her parents, brothers, JC, Doc Jr, Major, Alford, and Curtis, sisters, Dorothy, Fannie, Gladys, and Gloria. Those left to cherish her memories are her beloved husband, Gordon, sister Jerelene Smith, and numerous nieces, nephews, extended family, and friends.
