

Stairway

If tears could build a stairway, and memories could build a lane. I would walk up to Heaven and bring you back again. Farewell, my father. Though tears may fall and hearts may ache, your spirit live on, no bond can break. I will miss your hugs. I will miss your voice. One day I will see you again but till then rest in peace.

Obituary

Eddie Louis Allen Sr. was born on July 28, 1943, in Metter, Georgia, to Leconis and Mattie Allen, who preceded him in death. Eddie was one of nine siblings. He is survived by his sisters Blondie Williams (Larry) and Eddie Lois Richardson (Kennith), as well as his brothers Bennie Allen (Flo), Benjamin Russell, Daniel Russell, and Johnie Hill.

In 1959, Eddie moved to Cincinnati, Ohio, where he began working for Busken Bakery. In 1964, he met Jennifer (Bowers), and they were married in 1965. Eddie dedicated 43 years to Busken Bakery before retiring.

Eddie and Jennifer were blessed with five children: Evelyn Smith, Eddie "Trudy" Lois Allen, Evette Allen, Ericka Allen-Wooten (Calvin), and Eddie Louis Allen Jr. Eddie also leaves behind a host of grandchildren, great-grandchildren, and great-great-grandchildren, all of whom he loved deeply.

Eddie was a man of many passions. He enjoyed fishing, working on cars, and watching western movies—he's never saw one he didn't like. Above all, he adored his wife and family. Eddie was a devoted husband, father and grandfather. He had a heart of gold and never met a stranger.

We loved him deeply, but God loved him more. On November 22, 2024, God called Eddie home to the Kingdom.
