

The LORD is my Shepherd;
I shall not want.
He maketh me
lie down in green pastures:
He leadeth me beside the still waters,
He restoreth my soul:

He leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for His name's sake. Yea though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death.

*I will fear no evil:
for Thou art with me;*
Thy rod and Thy staff they comfort me.

Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies

Thou anointest my head with oil; My cup runneth over Surely goodness & mercy shall follow me
all the days of my life;

And I will dwell in the house of the LORD forever.
- Psalm 23

During a time like this we realize how much our

Friends

really mean to us.

Your expression of Sympathy

will always be remembered.

In Loving Memory of

Frances Schroeder

October 12, 1932 - February 28, 2025

Berry Funeral Home
& CREMATORY

PO BOX 1108 - 1265 WASHINGTON HIGHWAY

ELBERTON, GEORGIA 30635

PHONE (706) 283-5142

FAX (706) 213-1413

WEBSITE: www.berryfh.com

EMAIL: berryfh30635@yahoo.com

Memorial Service
2 o'clock in the afternoon
Saturday, March 8, 2025
Memorial Chapel of Berry Funeral Home

Officiating
Mr. Tommy Darracott

Interment
Tignall Baptist Church Cemetery

A Service of
Berry Funeral Home
Elberton, Georgia

Strength
Hope
Love

Honor Loving Memory

Miss Frances Schroeder, 92, of Washington, Georgia, passed away peacefully and went to be with the Lord on February 28, 2025, in Tignall, Georgia. Born on October 12, 1932, in Tignall, Georgia, Frances spent her life surrounded by family, friends, and a community she deeply cherished.

Frances was a person of unwavering kindness and joy. Her laughter was infectious, and her presence brought warmth to those around her. A devoted Christian, Frances lived her faith through acts of love and service. As a member of Washington Chapel, she found strength in her beliefs and shared that strength with others through compassion and generosity.

Though Frances never had children of her own, she had a special place in her heart for little ones. She volunteered at the primary school, helping children with reading and encouraging their growth with patience and care. Her dedication extended to the Washington Health Care Center, where she brought joy to residents by assisting with Bingo games and other activities. Frances had a gift for making people feel valued and appreciated.

One of Frances's favorite pastimes was shopping—not just for the items themselves but for the opportunity to see familiar faces along the way. She delighted in catching up with friends during outings, and the happiness in her voice after such visits was unmistakable.

Frances was preceded in death by her parents, Henry Schroeder and Alice Slay Schroeder; her sister, Catherine Schroeder Nance and her husband, Luther Nance; and her brother, James Schroeder. She is lovingly remembered by her niece, Claire Nance Drake; nephew, Mike Henry Nance; great-niece, Cathy Harper-Drake and her husband Morgan; great-niece, Leslie Cheryl Drake, and her son, her great-great-nephew, Kane Drake; as well as many cousins who will cherish her memory.

Frances's life was one of love, laughter, and kindness. Her memory will continue to bring comfort to all who were fortunate enough to know her.