

ACKNOWLEDGMENTS

The family of Henry Lee Seymore wishes to express our sincere and heartfelt gratitude to each of you for the many acts of love, kindness, and support shown to us during our time of bereavement. Your prayers, phone calls, visits, messages, flowers, comforting words, and every thoughtful gesture has brought us strength and comfort during this difficult time. As we celebrate Henry's life and cherish the memories he leaves behind, we are grateful to know that so many others loved and cared for him as well. Your presence today and your continued support mean more to us than words can adequately express. May God richly bless each of you for the love you have shown our family. We ask that you continue to keep us in your thoughts and prayers in the days ahead.

With Love and Gratitude,
The Family of Henry Lee Seymore

LIFE'S REFLECTIONS

Henry Lee Seymore

Henry Lee Seymore was born on August 23, 1943, to the late Ludia Washington and Gentlemen Seymore. He departed this life on September 4, 2026, leaving behind a lifetime of memories that will forever be cherished by his family and friends.

Henry received his early education at Linwood School in Benton, Mississippi. He later attended Holmes Community College in Holmes County, where he played football. His love for the game remained a special part of his life's story.

Henry was a hardworking and dedicated man who believed in providing for himself and his family. He was employed with Schlitz Beer Company for 35 years, demonstrating commitment and a strong work ethic throughout his career. He later worked at St. Catherine Nursing Home for five years before retiring from the workforce.

Henry was preceded in death by his mother, Ludia Washington; his father, Gentlemen Seymore; his grandmother, Mrs. Mag Seymore; his uncle, Brick Hudson; and his cousins, Vivian, Mary, Henry, and Jean Hudson.

Henry leaves to cherish his memory his daughter, Nartyia Jones of Yazoo City, Mississippi, whose mother, Susie Mae Jones, shared a special chapter of his life; two stepdaughters, Sandra Jones Campbell of Byram, Mississippi, and Amy Jones of Yazoo City, Mississippi; his grandchildren, Nayia Jones, Carrington Jones, and Caitlyn Jones, all of Yazoo City, Mississippi, Tradarrius Jones of Atlanta, Georgia, and Osha and Di'Onsa Campbell of Fort Worth, Texas; and his two great-grandchildren, Jh'carri Jones and Onyx Ramon Brown of Yazoo City, Mississippi. He also leaves to cherish his memory his special friend, Ms. Lillie Mae Guice; Bennie Green; and a host of other family members and dear friends whose lives were touched by his presence.

Henry's earthly journey has come to an end, but the memories created throughout his 83 years of life will continue to live in the hearts of those who knew and loved him. His legacy of hard work, family, friendship, and the many moments shared with those closest to him will not be forgotten.

TRIBUTES

He Only Takes the Best

*God saw you getting tired,
And a cure was not to be;*

*So He put His arms around you,
And whispered, "Come to me."
With tearful eyes we watched you,
And saw you pass away;*

*Although we loved you dearly,
We could not make you stay.
A golden heart stopped beating,
Hard working hands to rest;
God only takes the best.*

Love Your Family

To My Family

*Please don't let your hearts be troubled because I've gone away;
Just hold on to the memories
we made along the way.*

*Remember all the laughter,
the stories that we shared;
And know that through the years we had,*

*I always knew you cared.
My journey here is finished,
my work on earth is done;
I've laid my burdens down now
and entered peaceful rest.*

*When you gather as a family,
and notice I'm not there,
Just speak my name with love and know my spirit's near.*

*Take care of one another,
keep love within your hearts;
For love can cross all distances,
even when we're apart.*
