The Life of Chawnda McGuire-Hunter

Chawnda Renee' McGuire-Hunter was born April 24, 1970 in Hamilton, Ohio to Craig W. McGuire and Darlene Lampley-Sutton, her up bringing father was Bernard Sutton.

Chawnda attended Hamilton and Cincinnati Public Schools. Her 9th grade year she attended Roger Bacon Catholic High School where she graduated from with honors. She was the 1st Black cheerleader at Roger Bacon and she also was in the Marching Band and Chawnda was determined to be 1st in Clarinet like her mother. She loved a challenge and her favorite subject was English where she excelled for proper English. She also ran track as well in high school. Her favorite football team was the Dallas Cowboys and the Pittsburgh Steelers.

After high school Chawnda continued her education at University of Berkeley for 3 years from 1998-1992, where she majored in Criminal Justice and earned an Associates Degree.

In 1996 she gave birth to her daughter Raegen Eyah Davis, whom she loved so much. In 2003 she gave to her second daughter McKenzie Rianne McGuire. May of 2003 she married Lance Marshall Hunter, and gave birth to her 3rd daughter Leelah Madison and gain a stepson Lance Fezell Hunter, Jr. Chawnda loved to play music, dance, sing, cook with her girls always telling them, "To Be A Leader, Not A Follower, Blaze Your Trail." She deeply loved her mother and always let her daughters know their "Granny Don't Play." You watch for colors changes and you will know that you are in trouble.

On Saturday August 1, 2020 Chawnda answered the sweetest of calls, "Chawnda My Child Come on Home You've Earn Your Rest, Your Body Is Weary You've Done Your Best, Goodnight My Child Well Done, Well Done."

She is preceded in death by her husband, Lance M. Hunter; Sister, Kayshia Deaneen Sutton; Grandparents, Jimmie Helen Henderson-McGuire, Alphonso McGuire, Leonard Lampley, Sr., Dorothy Curry, John & Susie Sutton, Charlene Lampley Hardy, Minister Claudette Cole and Georgette Benson Lampley-Lynn; Uncles, Leon Lampley and Donald Lampley.

Chawnda leaves to cherish her memory a devoted mother & Stepfather, Darlene McGuire (Bernard) Sutton, Sr.; Loving father, Craig W. McGuire; Children, Lance Samples, Raeven E. Davis, McKenzie R. McGuire and Leelah M. McGuire; Sibling, Eboni J. McGuire, Bernard L. Sutton, Jr., and Shawn L. Cooper. A host of aunts, uncles, cousins, a special friend, Sean Ripey and many dear friends.
