LIFE'S REFLECTIONS

Wanda Williams Woodberry was born July 2, 1968, to Margree Andrews and John C Redmond in Yazoo County, MS.

Wanda loved life and she was the life of a party. Wanda attended Benton High School and was a star basketball player. She was named to All State for 2A after helping lead the Lady Bulldogs to the state championship in 1987.

She confessed her faith in Jesus Christ and was a member at Mt. Zion Missionary Baptist Church, Linwood and later joined at Madvernize Anointed New Beginning Ministry.

Wanda was employed at Holmes County Central High School as a custodian until her health failed.

She was preceded in death by her parents; four siblings: Earnestine Williams, Johnny Williams, Jerry Redmond, and Ashphin Redmond; and her best friend, Robert Earl Clay.

She will be missed by many as she will be remembered for her straightforward attitude, sense of humor and love for her children as well as family.

Those who cherish her memories include, her husband, Albert Woodberry; her children "her heart and joy": Marcus Thomas Sr., Mariah Thomas, and Areanna Thomas; her siblings "her rock", Marie Holmes, Tyrone (Cassandra) Redmond and Lukiel Redmond; five grandchildren: Tynijah Coleman, Marcus Thomas Jr, Messiah Thomas, Alexis Thomas Branson, and Malik Thomas; her sisters-in-law and brothers-in-law. She will also be missed by her nephews and nieces whom she loved as her own including a special niece that took care of her until the end, Truvis Thomas; special friends: Bettie Yancy, Jeannette Douglas, and Danita Williams. Many will miss Wanda which includes a plethora of cousins, former coworkers, and friends.

TRIBUTES

My Wife

I will miss you my baby, my girl, my love! You hurt me with this one, Wanda.

Your husband, Albert

Where do I go from here

*Heaven seems so far. I just want to feel you near. My Love, My Heart, My backbone...through it all momma, you fought and remained strong. Momma you will be dearly missed. I wish you was here so I can touch you and give you a kiss. I'm lost and going crazy. I don't know what to do.
My heart has been shattered ever since the day I lost you. Losing you didn't come with instructions, so now all I'm left with is memories, videos, and pictures.*

Forever Love to my angel, Da Rippa.

Your Babygirl

To My World

*I miss you mommy. I miss your hugs, your talks, your comfort and your "sugars". I love you so much, my heart. I could think of a billion words, but they could never describe the love I have for you, lady. Come visit me soon.
Continue to dance in heaven baby
I got your load my lady.*

Forever Your Baby, Mariah

For My Mother

*You were my first home,
my steady light,
the love that held me
through every fight.
Though you are gone,
you still remain –
in every breath,
in every name.
Forever your son,
my heart will stay
wrapped in your love,
day by day.*

Marcus

From Your Siblings

*We shared our childhood,
our laughter and tears,
a lifetime of memories through all of our years.
Though you are gone,
our bond won't end –
you'll always be our sister, our friend.*

Marie, Tyrone, Lukiel

To My Family

*I am gone from your sight,
but never from your hearts.
Do not cry long for me –
I am light, I am free,
I am yours always.
I rest in peace,
but my love lives on in you.*

Love Your Angel, Wanda
