LIFE'S REFLECTIONS

Stella Mae Stiff

"Come unto me, all ye that labour and are heavy laden, and I will give you rest"- Matthew 11:28

With both sadness and celebration, we announce the passing of Stella Mae Stiff, a vibrant soul who lived life entirely on her own terms. She passed away on December 5, 2025, leaving behind a legacy of joy, laughter, adventure, and an unwavering zest for life. She was born to the late Ruthie Mae Stiff and James Allen Williams, Sr.

Raised in Yazoo City, MS, Stella was known for her bold spirit and magnetic personality. She had a gift for lighting up any room she walked in whether it was a family gathering, or a night out with friends. She enjoyed the freedom of embracing every moment without hesitation.

A true lover of fun, she believed in celebration of life rather than worrying about what could go wrong. She lived with no regrets and those who knew her would be inspired by her fearless approach to life.

Stella was preceded in death by her dad, James Allen Williams Sr.; mother, Ruthie Mae Stiff; and one brother, Lennell Moore.

Stella survives by her loving father Lennell Stiff, sisters: Susie Stiff, Lynella Galloway, Ruth Stiff, Patricia Suggs, Allison Williams, and Lashonda Willingham; brothers: Rosonia Stiff, James Allen Williams Jr., Allen Williams, Marcus Moore; her beloved Jim BO; and a host of nieces, nephews, along with a wide circle of friends and extended family who will never forget the joy she brought to each one of our lives.

Today we celebrate her life, we honor her memories in the spirit she would have wanted filled with warmth, stories, music and love. For her journey reminds us of all to live boldly, love freely and dance whenever the music calls.

"Your life was a gift, your memory a treasure.

You are loved beyond words and missed beyond measure."

TRIBUTES OF LOVE

Sister, You Lived Boldly

You danced through life with fearless joy, a spark no one could hide.

You loved, you laughed, you lived out loud-With all of us right by your side.

*Now heaven holds your vibrant soul,
but here is where you stay*

In every story, every smile,

Every memory we replay.

Sister, you lived boldly

And you taught us how to live the same.

Your legacy is laughter,

your heart forever flames.

Love Your Siblings

I Am Not Gone

I am not gone, though you cannot see me,

I am the wind that whispers

through the trees,

The sunlight on your face, the gentle rain,

I'm in the quiet moments, free from pain.

I am not gone, I'm just a breath away,

In every thought you have,

in every prayer you say.

So, when you feel a tear, remember me with joy-I lived, I loved, laughed, danced

I did not just employ.

I lived a life with no regrets,

I embraced each day, without regret.

Now, I am free, and though you grieve, my love for you will never leave.

So, don't you weep, don't sorrow long,

Remember me in your heart's sweet song.

Celebrate my life with a smile, not a tear,

For I am always with you, always near.

I am not gone, I'm still your sister,

Your love for me will never wither.

*When you miss me, just close your eyes,
and you'll feel me in the stars, in the skies.*

*"Those we love don't go away;
they walk beside us every day.*
